PEGGY STAIR, A BRIDE

Gowned in white embroidered organdy, wearing a fingertip veil which fell from a cap headdress and carrying a bouquet of Album lilies, Miss Margaret G. (Peggy) Stair became the bride of Karl C. Anderson on Saturday, July 29, at 8 p.m. at the Trinity church.

Miss Holly Stair, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Her frock of white embroidered organdy over blue taffeta, was complemented by a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemum daisies.

Louis Hoffman of Litchfield, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and the ushers were Herbert Holt of Ravinia, Kenneth McDowell of Waterloo, Iowa and Jarl Natwick of St. Paul, Minnesota.

The bride's mother chose a dress of pale blue crepe for the occasion. Her corsage was of red garnet roses. The bridegroom's mother wore beige crepe and her corsage was of yellow roses.

EUROPEAN FESTIVAL TOUR

Conducting a three months' festival tour through Europe is Dr. Dudley Crafts Watson. His wife, who did not accompany him on his recent three months' jaunt through Africa, is a member of this group of twenty. The Watsons, who reside at 281 Marshman avenue, left for Europe on June 20 and expect to return on September 20.

The Watsons' son-in-law and daughter, the Calvin Bauers, are living in their home this summer. Mr. Bauer, who graduated this past June from Dartmouth college, is planning to return in the fall to work toward his master's degree.

GEORGE CRITTENTON, JR. TAKES A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Linda Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson of Miami Springs, Florida, and George D. Crittenton, Jr., son of the senior Crittentons of Glencoe, formerly of Highland Park, took place on Friday, July 21, at the Church of the Holy Cross Episcopal church, in Miami.

Miss Irene Fox of Miami attended the bride as maid of honor and John Anderson, brother of the bride, served as best man. Both Mr. Crittenton and his bride are students at Lake Forest college.

VISITING FAMILY

According to Handy Flame and Miss "Vi" Decker, "Meat cooked slowly at low temperature shrinks less. The meat is more uniformly cooked, more tender and juicy, and it takes less fuel to cook it."

Did you ever stop to think that hard times mean nothing to a hen? She must keep digging worms and laying eggs regardless of what the newspapers say about business conditions.

Pardon us while we cackle about the combination Gas and Oil burners for heating your home. More than two hundred of these burners are in use in this area and results with Norman, Comfort, or Siemon Gas-oil burners have been excellent.
