Looking Around Highland Park

Next time you're on Central Avenue, glance upwards and see that new addition on the Fell Store. It's right impressive!

And while we're on the subject of new-buildings-in-town, have you seen the progress made on the new Legion building?

Highland Parkers can be mighty proud of this handsome new edifice.

What's Your Choice? . . .

Popular Barrie O'Daniels at the Music Theater was telling us the other night that more North Shore musical comedy fans have requested "Show Boat" for next year's offerings than any other.

"Chocolate Soldier" and "Brigadoon" are choices No. 2 and 3.

Back again next year will be Barrie O'Daniels and staff . . . and the operettas you choose will be featured.

Final show in the 10 week season is "The Desert Song". The Music Theater closes Sunday until next summer.

Bravo! . . . to all the talented members of the Music Theater!

Tenthouse in '51 . . .

"Yes, the Tenthouse Theater will be back next year," Paul C. Behanna, able Highland Park lawyer told this reporter last weekend.

"They'll be back, and so far as we know, they'll be located on the high school's athletic field as they've been for the last two years," he said.

Highland Park's school system earns a good sum each summer from this rental of its athletic field, we're told.

Prior Wedding . . .

Saw many familiar faces at the Percy Prior-Dot Martin wedding over last weekend.

It was a gay event, completely enjoyed by all.

Among those we saw included: Dot Frisbie, Mrs. William Bletsch, Dr. B. V. Reaney, Blair Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Newman, and many others.

Ft. Sheridan IS Bustling . . .

Drove by Ft. Sheridan the other day and saw a lot of activity up there.

Also saw a lot of lonely GIs, looking for entertainment, and turning into the many booze parlors that bank the fort on the South.

Don't know why it is, but every town that springs around an Army camp is kinda bleak.

Negative temptations around lonely soldiers never did the Army or its soldiers a bit of good!

THE REV. GREENFIELD TAKES A BRIDE

The Highland Park Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of the Rev. Edward W. Greenfield, assistant minister of the church, and Mrs. Winifred Roberts Doerr on Sunday, August 27, at 11:30 a.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Main of Wilmette at whose home the reception was held in the afternoon for the wedding party and relatives. The bridegroom is the son of the P. A. Greenfields of Seattle, Washington.

The bride wore a pink satin gown with lace overskirt. She carried a Bible covered with white ribbed satin from her maternal grandmother's wedding dress. The gown was made in Lyons, France, especially for Mandel's Fashion for the World's Columbian Exposition in 1894. Pink and blue delphiniums marked the bride.

Mr. Carol Richardson of Evanston attended as matron of honor. The cocoa brown crepe frock she wore was trimmed with blush satin and her corsage was of pink roses.

Edwin Hansbrough served the Rev. Greenfield as best man and David Main, brother of the bride, and Charles Rose ushers.

The bride's transportation to the church was a public passenger carryall, fee included within the corporate city unless such owner will first be in company.

Now in the province of Wisconsin, for a week the Rev. Greenfield and his bride will reside with her parents during September, until the home they purchased at 2814 Walter street, Northbrook, ready for occupancy.

NANCY NEWMAN FETED

Miss Nancy Newman, who will be returning to San Francisco, California, tomorrow (Friday) after a visit here, has been entertained on several occasions. Mrs. Jack Venning was hostess at luncheon on Tuesday and yesterday Mrs. Betram Beers entertained at luncheon for her. To-day Mrs. Harry B. Clow, Jr. (Coco Barr) will give a luncheon in her honor.

Mrs. Robert H. Moon also entertained at dessert bridge for her. Mrs. Bertram E. Newman of 122 N. Sheridan road, was hostess at tea for her and her other daughter, Mrs. G. Chandler Webster (Suzanne Newman), of Evanston. Miss Newman is in the real estate business in San Francisco.

DOROTHY MARTIN MARRIES

The Rev. Dr. William A. Young heard the exchange of nuptial vows on Saturday, August 26, at 4:30 p.m. when Miss Dorothy Louise Martin became the bride of Percy H. Prior, Jr. at the Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of the George L. Martins of 8 Beech lane and Mr. Prior is the son of the senior Priors of 1026 Wade street.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white organdy gown, made with a square neckline, fitted bodice and very full skirt which ended in a train. Ruffles trimmed the neckline and bottom of the skirt. Her fingertip veil, which covered her face, fell from a Juliet cap, seed pearl trimmed. Her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in blue, fashioned with satin bodices and full marquisette skirts. Their matching jacket capes were trimmed with ruffles like those on the bride's gown. Their bouquets were of yellow carnations. Blue delphiniums were added to the matron of honor's to make it slightly different. The flowers in their hair matched their bouquets. Mrs. James R. Farnum (Betty Martin) of Norfolk, Virginia, was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Martin, another sister, and Mrs. Arthur Ropiequet (Jean Prior), sister of the bridegroom.

Arthur Ropiequet served as best man and the ushers were James Farnum, Robert Lundin and Robert Nichols.

The bride's mother wore lime gold faille and a lace hat and the bridegroom's mother was in toast lace. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

A reception at the Deerpath Inn, Lake Forest, followed the ceremony.

The young couple is now on a ten day wedding trip to Canada. On their return they will reside at 371 Central avenue.

TRAVELLING IN EUROPE

Noel Behn of 500 Bob O'Link road who sailed on July 8 for Copenhagen, Denmark, has been travelling through Europe. Noel is the son of the Jack Behns.

MARY C. SHERIDAN MARRIES

To permit time for a six weeks trip to Europe before establishing temporary residence at Hartford, Connecticut, on October 15, Miss Mary Claire Sheridan and John Patrick Gallagher changed their plans for an October wedding to a family wedding celebrated on Saturday, August 26. The wedding took place at 11:00 a.m. at a nuptial high mass at the Immaculate Conception Church at Highland Park, Illinois, with Monsignor Joseph P. Morrison officiating. The bride is a daughter
