JACQUELINE WICK WEDS

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Jacqueline Wick and Jack Sweeney on Saturday, September 9, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the George Wicks of 986 N. Green Bay road and the bridegroom is the son of the E. Glenn Sweeneys of Chicago.

The bride's ivory satin gown was made with a sweetheart neckline, and bustle back full skirt which ended in a long train. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a white satin crown head-dress.

Mrs. Kenneth Wick, sister-in-law of the bride, who attended as matron of honor, wore a blue faille dress and matching hat and carried white asters.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Aynsley in lime green faille and Miss Ruth Reilly in yellow faille, carried white asters. Their hats matched their gowns. Judy Brown, flower girl, cousin of the bride, was in pink.

The bride's mother chose an American Beauty colored dress and the bridegroom's mother was in cafe au lait.

Gene Sweeney of Chicago, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and Robert Dunker of Waukegan and Warren Heigh of Chicago ushered.

A small reception at Witten's hall followed the ceremony.

Laundry with leisure ... and modern automatic appliances!

Laundry day can be a lazy day ... when you have modern automatic equipment to help you!

You'll whiz through washing when you have an automatic washing machine. No more tiresome feeding of clothes into a wringer ... no more dipping them into several tubs to rinse them. A modern automatic washer goes through the whole operation for you, from sudsing to rinsing to spinning ... while you're doing the breakfast dishes or catching up on the morning newspaper.

The next step in any modern home laundry is to toss the clothes into the automatic dryer. Just take them from the spinner, put them in the dryer, and set the control. You'll take them out minutes later, damp-dry for ironing - or completely dry for storage. When you have an automatic dryer you can wash, rain or shine ... day or night ... and you'll be able to wash, dry, and iron the same morning.

Ironing is a snap, too, in a modern laundry. That's because the truly up-to-date household has an ironer for easy, sit-down ironing. You'll cut ironing-time in half ... and have better results ... when you use one of the modern automatic ironers.

Ask about the modern automatic laundry appliances at your dealer's or our nearest store today!
