NOVEMBER BRIDE

The Northmoor Country club will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Susan Gram and Louis J. Greenbaum, Jr. on Tuesday, November 14. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Gram of 1247 S. St. Johns avenue and her fiancé is the son of the senior Greenbaums of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Miss Natalie Schram will attend Miss Gram as maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Donald Greenbaum (Janet Loewenthal) of Milwaukee, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and the Misses Claire Feuchtwanger, Barbara Michaels and Barbara Schamberg, all of Highland Park.

Best man will be Donald Greenbaum, brother of the bridegroom. Malcolm Greenbaum of Chicago, his cousin; Richard Guggenheim, also of Chicago; and William Kahn and Richard Weisberg, both of Glencoe, will usher.

Miss Gram attended Ferry Hall, Ashby Hall and Larson college in New Haven, Connecticut. Mr. Greenbaum attended Tulane university and Kenyon college.

After a wedding trip to Honolulu and California the couple will live in Milwaukee.

RECENT HOSTESS

On Tuesday Mrs. Robert Dean Ingwersen (Mary Alice Larson) was hostess at a shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. Clarence A. Larson of 346 Park avenue, in honor of Mrs. Gunter W. Schwandt (Georgianne Frisbie) of 1874 Burton avenue.

The following day Mrs. Ingwersen again was hostess at her mother's home. The guest of honor at yesterday's party was Miss Sally Byrd Littlefield of Winnetka, whose marriage to Charles Hungerford of Connecticut will be an event of October 21 in Winnetka.

The Ingwersens, who had been residing on Park avenue, moved to an apartment at 917 S. St. Johns avenue on Saturday.

TO VISIT IN BELOIT

Mr. and Mrs. William Dorick of 331 North avenue will visit their daughter, Betty, at Beloit college in Beloit, Wisconsin, on Saturday. Betty, a freshman, was recently pledged to Pi Phi sorority.

APPROACHING WEDDING

Saturday, October 21, has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Betty Lou Walker, daughter of the Edwin Walkers of Flossmoor, and Walter Arthur Oweiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Oweiss of 2215 Dell lane. The 4:30 p.m. ceremony will be held in the Flossmoor Community church. The Rev. Robert K. Bell will hear the exchange of nuptial vows.

A reception will be held at the Calumet Country club. After a honeymoon in the Smokys, Mr. Oweiss and his bride will live at 6820 Oglesby avenue, Chicago.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of De Pauw university and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Illinois Institute of Technology, where he was a member of Sigma Pi Epsilon fraternity.

Among the parties given in honor of the couple was a dinner party and surprise miscellaneous shower on Saturday, September 30, for Mr. Oweiss. Mrs. Corliss Nugent and son, Warren, of Winnetka, were hostess and host. On Sunday, October 8, Miss Ruth Bergstrom, who will attend as maid of honor, gave a linen shower for Miss Walker at her home on the South Side, Chicago. A group of the bride's sorority sisters were her guests. The following day one of the bridesmaids, who also resides in Chicago, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be. Next Sunday, October 15, Charles Hadden of Glencoe, best man, will give a cocktail party for the betrothed couple.

Mrs. Warren Anderson (Dorothy Oweiss) of Kalamazoo, Michigan, sister of the bridegroom, will be one of the bride's attendants and Donald Walker, brother of the bride, will be one of the ushers.

LIVING IN LIBERTYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Kutzer, Jr., formerly of 1978 S. Sheridan road, are now living in Libertyville in the home they recently purchased.

HENRY B. WILDER TAKES A BRIDE

St. Edmunds Episcopal church in San Marino, California, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Nancy Alpine and Henry Bridgman Wilder on Friday, September 29, at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of the John Gorman Alpines of San Marino and the bridegroom is the son of the Roland D. Wilders of Moline, Illinois, formerly of Highland Park. Only family members and a few close friends attended the candlelight ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white embroidered organza made with a bouffant skirt. Her waist length veil fell from a cap of rosepoint lace. With her prayer book she carried a single white orchid.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in Emerald green faille and their matching Dutch caps were of velvet. The bouquets they carried were of white chrysanthemums. Miss Mary Hoag was maid of honor and Mrs. George Lupher, Mrs. David Steinmetz, Mrs. Jacque Rupp and Miss Nancy Wheeler attended as bridesmaids.

Ernest T. Chadwell served the bridegroom as best man and John and Peter Alpine, brothers of the bride; William Lapworth; and Paul Muldoon of Chicago ushered. A reception followed in the garden of the bride's parents' home.

The young couple spent their honeymoon at Balboa, California. They will live on the west coast. They plan to visit at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, the junior Hiram L. Kennicott of 335 N. Linden avenue, at Christmas time. Mr. Kennicott's father, who lives in Des Plaines, was in California and attended the wedding.

BAPTISM

Stephen Dorick Doyle was the name given to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Neil Doyle (Alice Dorick) at his baptism on Sunday, October 8. A family dinner followed the church ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. William Dorick of 331 North avenue are maternal grandparents. The Doyles live at 226 Ashland avenue, La Grange.

WAUKEGAN WEDDING

Miss Barbara Ann Termain, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Termain of Waukegan became the bride of Benny Evangelista, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Evangelista of 19 Prairie avenue, Highwood, at the Immaculate Conception church, Waukegan, on Saturday, October 7. The 9 a.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Cannon. The bride's cousin, William Hudson of Waukegan, gave her in marriage.

The bride and her attendants all wore ballerina type frocks. Miss Patricia Bernstein was maid of honor and Mrs. Joseph Mordini and Miss Marie Evangelista, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Patricia Quinn were bridesmaids. Little Mary Alice Evangelista, niece of the bridegroom, acted as flower girl.

Peter Mazzetta, Jr. of Highwood, served as best man and the ushers were Joseph Termain, brother of the bride, James Casorio and Jerry Muzik. Albert Hudson, son of the William Hudsons, was ring bearer.

A breakfast for the bridal party followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents and a dinner for the bridal party and relatives.

Mrs. Charles Bletsch To Address Presbyterian Women Thursday

The Women's Association of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church will hold its first all day meeting of the fall on Thursday, October 19th. The speaker of the day will be their own President, Mrs. Charles Bletsch, who will talk on "Echoes From the National Meeting at Ocean Grove."

Mrs. Bletsch attended the National Quadrennial Meeting of Presbyterian Women in August, at which time the lovely seaside resort of Ocean Grove, New Jersey, was turned over to more than 2,500 Presbyterian Women, who came from every state in the union, and many foreign countries. At this meeting the new board was elected, the policies formed, and new goals were set for the next four years. The theme at the meeting was "Thine is the Power", which is the message Mrs. Bletsch will bring to this meeting.

The meeting will open at ten a.m. with sewing and hospital dressings. Mrs. Carl Herbst's group will hold a bake sale. Mrs. A. G. Humphrey will conduct the Chancel service at noon. The luncheon will be served by Mrs. A. J. McMaster's group at 12:30. The afternoon program will begin at 2:00 o'clock, at which time Mrs. Bletsch will give her address.
