JOY PETERSON, A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Joy Lariene Peterson and Norris T. Nelson took place on Saturday, October 28, at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The 8 p.m. service was read by the Rev. Albert Masser of the First United Evangelical church. The bride is the daughter of the Arnold Petersons of 1291 Broadview avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the A. Nelsons of Des Moines, Iowa.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin. The marquisette yoke of the dress was trimmed with seed pearls and the trimming on the full skirt, which ended in a long train, was of applique and seed pearls. The three-quarter length veil she wore fell from a beaded cap headdress. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and Fujii chrysanthemums centered with two purple orchids.

The bride's attendants were all gowned alike in mauve frocks and the Colonial bouquets they carried and their headresses were of white pom poms and purple dyed chrysanthemums. Miss Patricia Peterson was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Nan Nelson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ruth McCarroll of Oak Park, Illinois, a former roommate of Miss Peterson at Wheaton college.

Dale and Sharon Husenetter, cousins of the bride, acted as flower girls. They were dressed alike in pale green satin trimmed with white lace and their miniature Colonial bouquets were of white pom poms. Candelighters were Miss Geraldine Nelson of Newman Grove, Nebraska, cousin of the bride, and Miss Sally Godschalk of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a student at Wheaton college.

Lloyd Hamill of San Francisco, a student at Northwestern university, served Mr. Nelson as best man. Robert Gray of Oak Park and James Keasling of San Francisco, a medical student at the University of Chicago, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a steel blue crepe dress, lace trimmed, for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in periwinkle blue. Each wore a purple corsage. Mrs. Donald Gieser, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Sherry at the organ, sang.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Highland Park Woman's club.

Enroute to their home in California, Mr. Nelson and his bride will spend three weeks in the south, stopping at New Orleans, Dallas and Albuquerque. They will live at 3720 Scott street, San Francisco.

Among the luncheons given in honor of Miss Peterson, prior to the wedding was one given by Mrs. Remo Morelli (Mary Lou Hennig) of 227 N. St. Johns avenue. Co-hostesses at another luncheon were Mrs. Frank Haglund of 1845 Broadview avenue, at whose home the party was given, and Mrs. Sture Swanson of 1222 Burton avenue. Mrs. Axel Olson of Pleasant avenue also honored the bride at luncheon.

Dinner parties were given for Miss Peterson by Mrs. Fred Gieser of McDaniels avenue and Mrs. E. A. Hintz of Chicago, formerly of Highland Park. A dinner party in honor of both the bride and bridegroom was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon of 1287 Broadview avenue.

Three miscellaneous showers also honored the bride-to-be. About forty guests attended the party at which Miss Marion Dahl, Mrs. Paul Inman and Mrs. Burton Tillman were co-hostesses. Miss Ruth McCarroll also entertained at a miscellaneous shower. Miss Peterson's Sunday School class gave a pot luck supper and miscellaneous shower in her honor, also.

ARRIVE IN ETHIOPIA

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Moon (Helen Cassedy) of 133 S. Green Bay road, who left New York last Friday by plane, have arrived at their destination, Ethiopia. Mr. Moon has taken a position as pilot with the Ethiopian Air Lines. They will be gone for three years. He is the son of the Fred R. Moons of 598 Homewood avenue.

Before reaching Ethiopia, their plane had stopovers in Newfoundland; The Azores; Spain; Portugal; Paris, France; Rome, Italy and Cairo Egypt.

SORORITY PLEDGE

Miss Carolyn Baird, a freshman at Duke university, Durham, North Carolina, has been pledged to Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Miss Baird is the daughter of the Robert D. Bairds of 20 S. Linden avenue. Her parents plan to visit her at Thanksgiving time.

WEEK-END IN McHENRY

Week-end guests of the Lester Balls of McHenry, Illinois were the Albert Larsons of 133 S. Green Bay road and Werner B. Spengler of 414 Glencoe avenue.

WALTER OWEISS TAKES A BRIDE

The Flossmoor Community church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Betty Lou Walker and Walter A. Oweiss on Saturday, October 21 at 4:30 p.m. The Rev. Bell heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Walker of Flossmoor and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Oweiss of 2215 Dell lane.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace and her three quarter length veil fell from a lace cap headdress. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Ruth Bergstrom, maid of honor, wore a leaf green velvet frock made with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and very full skirt. The cap and mitts she wore matched her gown and she carried rust colored chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Warren Anderson (Dorothy Oweiss), sister of the bridegroom, and the Misses Ann Berggren and Joyce Elmgren wore dresses made like that of the maid of honor in rust velvet. Their caps and mitts matched their frocks, also, and their bouquets were of yellow chrysanthemums.

Best man was Charles Hadden of Glencoe and the ushers were Donald Walker, brother of the bride, Ole Flaas of Park Ridge, and Warren Nugent of Winnetka.

The bride's mother wore mauve lace and a matching feathered hat and the bridegroom's mother was in teal blue lace and black velvet hat. Each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception followed at the Calumet Country club. About 200 guests were present.

After a week's honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains, Mr. Oweiss and his bride are now living at 6820 Oglesby avenue, Chicago.

BACK HOME

The H. E. Holts of 1330 Judson avenue have returned home after a week's vacation in Wisconsin. Prior to their Wisconsin trip they had spent a week in the East.

After a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davenport (Ella May Baird) in Lakewood, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Baird of 20 S. Linden avenue have returned home.

Mr. Louis Cassel of 1400 Pleasant avenue spent a few days in Davenport, Iowa, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Folz.

Recently home after a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Brewner, and sister, Miss Betty Brewner, of Eldorado, Illinois, are Mrs. Harry Yeager and daughter, Linda, of 1949 Northmoor road.

Mrs. Yeager and Linda accompanied her parents and sister when they returned home after attending Homecoming at the Northern Illinois State Teachers' college in DeKalb. Miss Brewner graduated from the college in June.

The Harry Elliots of 739 Ridgewood drive recently returned from a three weeks' northern trip. They visited the Winnepeg International Falls and toured the northern part of Minnesota. In Canada they were the guests of Mr. Elliott's brother and his wife, the Homer Elliots at their summer home at Bone Lake.

MARY OLMSTED MARRIES

Miss Mary Florence Olmsted became the bride of George Truitt Rayne at the Presbyterian church on Saturday, October 14. The Rev. William A. Young performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the Robert H. Olmsted, Jr. of 2367 Pierce road and the bridegroom is the son of the Frederick W. Raynes of Madison, Wisconsin.

The bride's traditional ivory satin gown ended in a long train, caught up in several places with chantilly lace and gardenias. Her full length Brussels lace veil was held in place by a narrow satin coronet. She carried stephanotis and gardenias. Her father gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Richard Castle (Suzanne Olmsted) attended her sister as matron of honor and Miss Virginia Rayne, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jane Stotz of Pittsburgh; Miss Susan Weary of Evanston and Mrs. Ralph Weary of Glencoe were bridesmaids. The attendants were all gowned alike in coralberry velveteen. Gardenias were carried by the matron of honor and she wore the same flowers in her hair. The bridesmaids bouquets were of white carnations and greenery and in
