JEAN MRAZEK, A BRIDE

The Glencoe Union church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, November 18, when Miss Jean Dolores Mrazek became the bride of Donald Harvey Grimshaw of Dayton, Ohio. The 8 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Robert Stubbs. The bride is the daughter of the Henry F. Mrazeks of 1706 Pleasant avenue.

The bride, who was given in marriage by both her mother and father, wore an ivory colored gown made with a satin bodice and long pointed sleeves and full net skirt. Her fingertip lace veil fell from an ivory net cap headpiece, seed pearl trimmed. She carried white roses and white carnations centered with white orchids.

Miss Elaine Mrazek, sister of the bride, who attended as maid of honor, was gowned in ice blue. The bodice was of satin and the slightly hooped full net skirt gave a Colonial effect to the frock. Her headpiece was a matching Juliet crown. The bouquet she carried was of Talisman roses.

The bridesmaids dresses and headpieces were made like that of the maid of honor. Miss Pauline Galley wore gold color and Miss Mary Ann Mueller was dressed in champagne color. Their flowers, too, were Talisman roses.

The bride's mother chose a toast colored gown for the occasion, complemented by a corsage of brown orchids.

Best man was William Moultrie of Warden, Illinois and ushers were Albert Mueller of Highland Park; William Kemp of Mount Clemens, Michigan; Ralph Wilson of Syracuse, New York and John Naylor of Alpena, Michigan. Mr. Thomas sang.

A reception at the Highland Park Woman's club followed the ceremony.

Mr. Grimshaw and his bride are now in Daytona Beach, Florida, for a two weeks' honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Waukegan.

Mr. Grimshaw, an Interior Communications Chief, attended the University of Dayton before enlisting in the navy in 1942. He is at present stationed at Great Lakes. His bride attended Lake Forest college and Northwestern university.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Ben Purdom of Dayton, Ohio and Mrs. William Shroyer of Stresburg, Ohio, and brother, Forest P. Grimshaw of Yellow Springs, Ohio. Other out-of-town guests were Miss Helene R. Kutzer of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Nechville of Minneapolis, Minnesota, cousins of the bride; Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Frank Fromme and Lt.
