Skating Season Begins

Morgan Playground was opened for skating last week-end, and the freezing weather made possible both skating and hockey for the Elm Place school children.

Flooding of the pond is handled by the Park District of Highland Park, at the expense of the Elm Place P.T.A., which also assumes the cost of keeping the warming house open and other operating expenses. These expenses are met by voluntary contributions of parents of children in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Jolls, 22 N. Linden, are chairmen of the Skating Rink committee. Contributions for the fund may be sent to them.

Women Of The Moose

On January 28 the Highland Park chapter 806 of Women of the Moose will be hostess at a Midwinter Conference which will include five chapters. Senior Regent Mrs. R. Mau is chairman of the affair.

A recent Christmas party of the chapter was a surprise by the Zion chapter kitchen band. There were gifts and refreshments as well as a program. Attendance was 94, with eight visitors.

ENLISTS IN NAVY

Robert Burns Johnson, Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Johnson of 1712 Broadview ave., was
