ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Kathleen Kelsey of Huntington, Indiana, daughter of Mr. Knowlton H. Kelsey and the late Mrs. Kelsey, to Arthur G. Humphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Humphrey of 1321 Judson Avenue, has been announced by Miss Kelsey's father.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Huntington High School and will graduate next June from DePauw University where she is affiliated with Delta Zeta social sorority. Her fiance graduated from Highland Park High School in 1946 and from DePauw University in June, 1950, with a major in geology. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and, at present, is with the United States Army at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. The wedding date has not yet been set.

BARBARA FLOYD ENGAGED

The engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Gerald R. Roberts has recently been announced by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Floyd of 441 St. Johns place. Mr. Roberts is the son of Mrs. N. W. Roberts of Alamosa, Colorado.

Miss Floyd, a junior at the University of Colorado, is a graduate of Highland Park High school, where her father is a faculty member. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Since the holidays, her sorority has given the traditional formal dinner in her honor, at which time the betrothal was revealed.

Mr. Roberts, a graduate of the University of Colorado, is now employed in Denver. A June wedding is planned.

BETROTHAL TOLD

The betrothal of their daughter, Carol, to Alton R. Packard was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Williams of 367 Ravine drive at a party at their home. Mr. Packard is the son of the Frank O. Packards of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Miss Williams was graduated from the Faulkner School for Girls and is a senior at Smith. Her fiance attends the University of New Mexico. He will enter the Air Force next month. No date has been set for the wedding.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson W. Smart of 99 Sycamore place returned home on Sunday after a three weeks' holiday spent at the Hillsboro Club in Pompano, Florida.

Their three children, Dee Dee, a freshman at Smith; Jack, a junior at the University of Michigan, and Allen, a student at Deerfield Academy, who made the trip to Florida by plane, joined their parents for the Christmas vacation from school.

RETURNS TO SCHOOL IN TORONTO, CANADA

Richard J. Allenby, Jr. returned to Toronto, Canada, on Sunday, where he is a student at the University of Toronto.

His wife, the former Julie Zischke, and young son, Braden Richard, born at the Highland Park hospital on December 29, will remain with his parents, the senior Allenbys of 1919 S. Sheridan road, for another month.

CAROL CARTER WEDS

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Carol Ruth Carter and Homer Dale Clark, Jr. on Saturday, December 30. The 4 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Dr. William A. Young. A reception followed the ceremony at the Highland Park Woman's club.

The bride's gown was made of white satin, lace trimmed. The full skirt of the frock ended in a sweep train. The bouquet she carried was of white gladioli. The real lace used in her cap head-dress was a gift from a relative to the bride when she was a baby. Her veil was fingertip length.

Maid of honor, Miss Cynthia Betts of Lakee Forest, was gowned in Christmas green taffeta, and her flowers were of yellow gladioli.

John W. Clark of Peoria, Illinois, served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother wore a dress of slate blue. Her hat and accessories matched the lavender sequins which trimmed the bodice of her dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a black dress embroidered in white for the occasion. Each wore an orchid corsage.

The bride and bridegroom, who are both graduates of Purdue university in Lafayette, Indiana, spent their honeymoon in the south. They are now living in Peoria.

RETURNS TO PITTSBURGH

Mrs. Robert Buchter (Monie Eyer) and son, Jonathon, 20 months, were Christmas guests of her parents, the Godfrey J. Eyers of 344 Marshman avenue. Her husband joined them here and their plan was to return to their home in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, with him. However, the stork took over, and the Buchters became parents of twins, a son, Marc Alan, on January 2, and a daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, on January 3.

Mrs. Buchter and the children will remain a little longer. Mr. Buchter returned home on Tuesday.
