

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2004

ANN STEACY, A BRIDE

Miss Ann Louise Steacy became the bride of Thomas J. Clark on Saturday, January 27, in the Immaculate Conception church. The 10 a.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Bernard Burns. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas R. Steacy of 1235 Burton avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Thomas P. Clarks of 426 Oakwood avenue.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gown-d in white satin. The bodice was trimmed with buttons and a Peter Pan collar, seed pearl trimmed. Her full skirt ended in a long train and with her fingertip veil of French Illusion she wore a Juliet cap. She carried camellias and a white orchid with her white prayer book.

Miss Valeria Siegele, cousin of the bride, attended as maid of honor and Miss Marian Clark, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Their Taffeta frocks and matching hats were of coronation green, and their bouquets of red roses and white carnations.

Joseph Greco served as best man and John Basche of Green Bay, Wisconsin, cousin of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a dress of toast brown for the occasion, complemented by a corsage of talisman roses. The bridegroom's mother wore powder blue and her corsage was of pink carnations.

A breakfast was held at the Moraine hotel following the ceremony and a reception at the home of the bride's parents, in the afternoon.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. Clark and his bride will be residing at 1237 Burton avenue.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Basche and son John; the Misses Margaret, Marian and Genevieve Clark; Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Clark, all of Green Bay, Wisconsin; Miss Katherine Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. John McMullen of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carolan of Skokie, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. W. Waestenfeld of Waukegan and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brandt of Evanston.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

Home last week-end after several weeks spent in Key West, Florida, are the John D. Picketts and their grandson, Ronnie Howes, of 303 Ravine drive. Prior to their vacation in the south, the Picketts and Ronnie spent the holidays in New York City with their son-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clay (Grace Pickett) and Miss Camille Pickett.

Camille, who is doing dramatic work in television is seen over New York station WOR.

After an eight day stay in Miami Beach, Florida, Al Richman of 805 Princeton avenue returned home last week. Al, who drove south with Martin Staller of Glen-coc, returned by plane.

MOVE TO DEERFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bailey, recently of 1237 Burton avenue, moved last month to Deerfield, where they recently purchased a home on Sheridan avenue.

Their daughter, Barbara, is teaching school this year in Michigan and their other daughter, Geraldine, is attending Wellesley college. Their son, Ronald, a member of the air corps, is now on duty in Korea.

VISITS DAUGHTER

Recently home after a five weeks' holiday visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. King (Louise Haessler) is Mrs. Mildred B. Haessler of 1737 Rice street.

HOME FROM SCHOOL

Herb Holt returned home this week after completing his last semester at James Millikin university in Decatur. Wayne Albert of Decatur, a schoolmate, spent a few days as his guest.

His brother, David Holt, a freshman at Knox college in Galesburg, Illinois, spent the week-end at home. They are the sons of the H. E. Holts of 1330 Judson ave.

WINTERING IN FLORIDA

Mrs. David R. Clarke of 240 Cary avenue left recently for Palm Beach, Florida, where she is spending the winter.

ENTERS SECOND SEMESTER AT STEPHENS COLLEGE

Miss Barbara Riskind entered the second semester of her senior year at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., this week. She is a member of the Independents and serves her dormitory as publicity chairman.

After graduation from Stephens, where she has been taking a liberal arts course, she plans to enter Northwestern University. Miss Riskind is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Riskind, 2512 North Deere Park.

HARRY ALTER PRESIDENT OF ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION

Plans for the expansion of all promotion activities of the electric industry in Chicago during 1951 will be revealed by the newly elected officers of the Electric Association on Feb. 6 at the first membership meeting of the association to be held in many years, it was announced recently by Clifford C. Simpson, managing director.

More than 1,000 are expected to attend the dinner meeting at the Hotel Sherman, which will be the high spot in the celebration of Chicago Electric Week.

Harry Alter, 199 Ravine Drive, of Harry Alter Company, the new president, announced that N. J. MacDonald of Thomas & Betts Company of New Jersey, will be the principal speaker. He will forecast the growth of the electric industry and business in general in the coming year.

Mr. Alter, who took over the gavel of the association last week from Axel H. Kahn of General Electric Supply Corporation, will be inducted into office.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Northwestern University has invited 1,000 school administrators from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin to its Evanston campus tomorrow, February 2, to hear the latest details on proposed military service legislation.

Col. Paul Armstrong, Illinois director of selective service, heads the list of speakers who will address school administrators from the three states. Representatives of the army, navy and air corps will also be present to describe opportunities in their respective branches of the services.

Among those invited is A. E. Wolters, principal of Highland Park high school.

DEBORAH WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

The next regular meeting of the Deborah Woman's Club will be held Thursday, February 8, 1951, at 1:00 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Standard Club.

This event promises to be one of the outstanding meetings of the season. There will be a gala Valentine Party in connection therewith and luncheon will be served.

The Deborah Woman's Club of which many Highland Parkers are members, maintains the Deborah Boys' Club, 3401 West Ainslie St., Chicago, which serves boys ranging in that age where responsibility, industry and good citizenship is so essential toward the building of these boys into worthwhile citizens.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

New owners of the home at 1815 Pleasant avenue are Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Edelman, formerly of the South Side, Chicago. Their son, Gerald, is four years old and their daughter, Elizabeth, is 2. Mr. Edelman is western representative of a smoking pipe firm.

Former Chicagoans are the Leslie Shankmans of 1310 Marion avenue, the home they recently bought. Mr. Shankman is in the candy business in Chicago.

The Donald Dinwiddies moved to Highland Park on November 28, but soon after their arrival left for Virginia where they spent the holidays. They have now returned and are residing in the home at 1918 Kincaid avenue, which they purchased from the Glenn Mills. The Dinwiddies are parents of a son, Johnny, 1 year old.

Mr. Dinwiddie is managing editor of "Science and Mechanics" magazine, Chicago.

Now living in the home they recently purchased at 600 Bob O'Link road are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin I. Coven, former Chicagoans. Their sons are Jeffrey, 9, and Larry, 3. Mr. Coven is in the television business in Chicago.

From Glencoe are the V. D. McConnells of 2440 Clavey road. The McConnells, whose daughter, Miss Patricia, resides with them, recently returned from three months spent on the west coast. Mr. McConnell is an attorney in Chicago. His wife is his associate.

Captain and Mrs. J. A. Kallanj of 1537 Highmoor road are new Highland Parkers. Formerly of the South Side, Chicago, the Captain is now stationed at Fort Sheridan. Their son-in-law and daughter, E. M. 1/c and Mrs. John Miller and their son, Leslie, 3, and daughter, Kristine, 2, live in National City, California.

Mr. Miller, U. S. Navy, is stationed on the west coast.

Living at 730 N. St. Johns ave. are the Joseph A. Colemans. Recently of Lake Bluff, the Colemans were married last May 20. Mr. Coleman, a bricklayer, is the son of the Bert Colemans of 630 Glenview avenue.

New Highland Parkers are Corporal and Mrs. LeRoy A. Wolter. Cpl. Wolter, who is stationed at Fort Sheridan, and his bride, the former Dolores Kannenberg, were married on January 13, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, their home town.

Formerly of Chicago are the Walter J. Koepkes of 2431 Buena road. Mr. Koepke is with the Globe Furniture and Stationery company, Chicago. Their son, Warren, who resides with his wife in Lake Forest, was the architect who designed their home. It was built by Living Unlimited, the company with whom he is associated.

Newcomers to Highland Park are Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Rady and daughters, Barbara, 9, and Judith, 13. From Chicago, they built their ranch style home at 2210 Oak Knoll terrace. Mr. Rady is an attorney in Chicago.

CLEO MAURINE MARRIES

On Sunday, January 28, Miss Cleo Jane Maurine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Maurine, and Dr. Leonard Kohn of 664 Deerfield avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Kohn of Cleveland, Ohio, were united in marriage at 3 p.m. in the home of Justice Samuel S. Smith, 864 Ridgewood drive.

The bride wore a navy blue suit and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink camellias.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Gaylen of Barrington, Illinois, attended the couple.

Immediately following the ceremony Dr. Kohn and his bride left for a two weeks' honeymoon in Florida. They will live in Highland Park.

A family dinner preceded the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

ISABELLE DENZEL WEDS

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Isabelle M. Denzel and John T. Moran of Winthrop Harbor on Saturday, January 27 at 11 o'clock in the morning. The bride is the daughter of William Denzel of 125 S. Second street and the late Mrs. Denzel. The Rev. Donald B. Runkle heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

Down the front of the bride's white faille frock were velvet bows and the back was fashioned with a bustle. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara, seed pearl trimmed. She carried white lilies centered with a white orchid.

Miss Katherine Denzel attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore teal blue and the white daisies in her hair were like those in her bouquet.

After a reception at the Highland Park Woman's club at 3 p.m.,

Mr. Moran and his bride left for New Orleans for a two weeks' wedding trip. They will live in Winthrop Harbor.

JOHN SCHMIDT TAKES A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Ruth Lee Anderson and John Irving Schmidt took place at St. James' church, Highwood, on Saturday, January 27 at 12 noon. The Rev. Gleason performed the ceremony. Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvar Anderson of 118 S. Central avenue, Highwood, and Mr. Schmidt is the son of Mrs. Florence Schmidt of 640 Home-wood avenue.

The bride's gown of white satin was fashioned with a yoke of net, seed pearl trimmed and a long train. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried white carnations.

Miss Dolores Michela, maid of honor, wore an aqua frock and carried a bouquet of aqua and pink carnations. Her headpiece was made of nylon flowers to match her dress.

James Weber served as best man.

The bride's mother wore navy blue, as did the bridegroom's mother. Each wore a corsage of red roses and white sweetpeas.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother at 8 p.m. About 75 attended.

Following a short honeymoon,

High School P.T.A. Hears Discussion Of Peace Possibilities

The February meeting of the Highland Park High School P.T.A. will be held today, Thursday, at 3:30 in the English Club Room. Dr. Harold Bosley, minister of the First Methodist Church of Evanston, will be the speaker, and has chosen as his subject, "Is Peace Still Possible?"

North Shore Florist and Landscape Service

JOS. KOLBECK

Telegraph Delivery Service

Phone Glencoe 609

290 Greenwood Avenue Glencoe, Illinois

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

HOUSE CLEANING? CURTAIN TROUBLES?

Call

PARKWAY Curtain Laundry

For All types of curtains—aprons, table linens and blankets.

DRY CLEANING (all types)
Free Pick-up and Delivery
53 N. Green Bay
HI 2-5004

Completely Automatic for Performance Plus

For tops in cooking performance you can't beat an automatic clock-controlled gas range built to C P standards. Up-to-the-minute in beauty and styling, they're wonders for fast, easy, economical cooking. The beautiful Roper gas range pictured here has all of the wonderful freedom of a clock-controlled oven built into its sturdy 36" frame to bring you the luxury of automatic cooking at a budget-minded price.

ROPER

$229.00 (tax incl.), or $57.38 down, 15 monthly payments of $12.34

VENETIAN BLINDS

Window Shades
Mirrors - Glass Tops
- Glazing -

Highwood Glass & Paint Co.

603 Washington Ave.
All Phones, HI 2-7211