Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape—imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way Joseph N. Damill, 3414 E. 8th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL, he says he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damill found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B, B, Niacin and Iron. Here is Mr. Damill's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at nights. I could not keep food on my stomach, but after the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at nights. Thanks to HADACOL, I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

THE SPORTSLIGHT

By Will Schlichting

Jeagerard of New Trier still holds on to the scoring lead in the Suburban conference with 167 points according to figures released by Harry G. Pertz of the local high school and veteran secretary of the League. In fourth place we find Bob George of the Little Giants who holds a slim 4 point lead over Peebles of Evanston, who by the way, is lost to that club through graduation. The high point scorers are as follows: Jeagerard, N.T. with 167; Schuchman, Proviso with 138; Makovsky, Morton with 128; Bob George, H. P. with 121; Peebles, E. with 117; Elliott, Waukegan with 108 and Sander, Proviso with 88.

In the frosh-soph division we find that Highland Park's speed merchant Eddie Capitani has been able to climb into fourth place with 71 points to his credit. The leading score for the "small fry" division is Fraser of Oak Park who has tallied 95 points. Oak Park, by the way is still undefeated in conference play having eight consecutive wins to lead the league.

We see where a bowling team composed of A. Turki, Cimbalo, Walz, Eubank and D. Turki took on the Waukegan keglers and came out on the short end by 304 pins. Walz had high game of 176 for the local boys and he tied with D. Turki for high series at 460. A return match will be played this Saturday at the Highland Ten Pin alleys.

Haven't got too much to say about the games last week end except that the varsity boys lost a couple of heartbreakers. They lost by 2 points in an overtime game Friday night at Proviso and dropped the New Trier game by 4 points. We can say this, however, that the Little Giants are steadily becoming worthy of that name and are to be feared by all other schools in the league. Hall, Schramm, Ponsi, George, Picchetti, Freeman and Davis—all are doing a mighty fine job and the losses this year are by the closest of margins in most cases.

Handkerchiefs needed! What a heartbreaker that Proviso varsity game was. (We've really been getting our money's worth of overtime lately.) It's good to see so many so many loyal fans turning out for the away games.

One of the high points of the New Trier varsity game on Saturday was the track meet between Mr. Broming and Dicky Beam. Our congratulations to Mr. Broming. Our sympathies to Dicky.

As a climax to two nights of basketball games came the Community Center dance. Everyone was relieved to find that the startling blast over the mike, mid-evening, was only Danny Herz proving his musical talent. Seems his instrument was the brain storm of the newly formed official Junior boys' cheering section.

Rene Signorio, we were disappointed to learn that you wouldn't take advantage of a certain five dollar bet. Some people in sixth period lunch have the strangest intentions. The lunch period is also noted for its over-anxious, over-amorous individuals. Huh, Jimmy?

And what does Dave Taylor do as he leans over the balcony of Shields? Ask Dave Schwartz. But look what he was promised by Lynn Elliott and Judy McComb. What a prize! Collected yet, Dave?

The frosh-soph boys, after being beaten at Proviso came back on Saturday to win a thriller in overtime. They looked good in the New Trier game but were like the proverbial "sad sacks" in the Proviso contest. These lads are either hot or cold and when they are cold, boy, they can't seem to do anything right. We hope that they can snap out of it by this Friday as they will take on the undefeated Oak Park team and can make up for past lapses in basketball sense if they can come up with a win in that contest.

Yep, the Little Giants will take on Oak Park Friday evening and we hope that another bus load of students will be on hand (they certainly have received their money's worth so far) to help the boys take a double header. Then on Saturday the Morton team, the states hottest cagers at the present time, will invade the local gym for a couple of games.

Coaches Kendig and Panther will take their respective swimming teams to Oak Park today for the final duel meet of the season.

HI SCHOOL JINX

If certain freshmen boys have crew cuts it's no fault of theirs. Seems that certain green-eyed Senior boys, alias Dietz and company, don't appreciate peroxide jobs. Stealing your show, huh?

Kiddies, watch out for the rush! Certain teen-agers are horning in on your Kiddie Matinee. What has Robin Hood got that Sheltons haven't!

Try-outs for Student Stunts have brought out hidden talent. Sounds very promising, including even a hullah dance!

Seems that Bob Hinchcliff and Tom Swidler had a corner on the market as far as seats for the New Trier swimming meet is concerned. Did someone say something about "Little Birdie On My Window Sill?" We see the resemblance.

What attraction is there in Florida? Ask "THE" Junior boys. Mind if we go along? Hm-mm-mm?

The oddest things happen in seventh period chorus. Don Ruffolo enjoys the romantic type of food. Candy hearts—how sentimental. Butch Warren prefers the squirtier kind of fruit (also). At least Butch gets his sunshine vitamins from an orange.

Hint, hint, hint, boys. The February Thing is coming up in two weeks. We want you to take more than a hint—take a girl.

State Builds Nation's Top Police Force

Newly recruited patrolmen march out of the State Police Training Academy at the State Fairgrounds, Springfield, where they have just completed a rigorous four-weeks course of training required prior to final acceptance on the reorganized Illinois force. The training program is an essential part of Illinois' program to develop the finest state police force in the nation.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. — Complete reorganization of the Illinois State Police on a non-political, streamlined and highly efficient basis will be achieved within the very near future, it was announced by Acting Director Thomas J. O'Donnell of the State Department of Public Safety. O'Donnell said that the incumbent Republican police force inherited from the past administration had been thoroughly screened and reduced in number until it approached the parity figure—250. In the meantime, young Democratic candidates for State Police jobs have been screened, trained and appointed to the force to bring it up to the maximum strength of 500 for the first time in a number of years. Legislation sponsored by Governor Adlai E. Stevenson during the last legislature permitted establishment of a police force wholly emancipated from political domination. Separating the State Police from politics for the first time in 28 years, the new laws provided that the personnel shall be equally divided between Republicans and Democrats no later than January 1, 1951. After that date appointments will be made strictly on a basis of merit without regard for political affiliation. The police force now has 434 patrolmen, of which 217 are affiliated with the Democrat party and 217 with the Republican party. O'Donnell pointed out. Sixty-six command positions are also filled, equally by Democrats and Republicans. All that yet remains to accomplish complete reorganization of the police force is the selection of 12 from the ranks for promotion to command positions to bring command strength to its normal figure of 78 and the appointment of 12 additional candidates to fill the vacancies in ranks caused by these promotions. "When this reorganization is completed—and it will be many months ahead of schedule—Illinois will have a state police force second to none in the nation," O'Donnell said.

So much depends on them

Good telephone people are essential to your good service in normal times. They are supremely important today in meeting the growing telephone needs of national defense.

$15,500,000 IN NEW PAYROLL COSTS TO ASSURE GOOD SERVICE

Good telephone service is the foundation of military and civilian defense communications... a keystone of speeded-up war production. Good telephone employees form the base on which it is built.

And to assure continued good service during the critical days ahead, this company has recently granted additional wage increases to the 39,000 employees serving you at Illinois Bell. These will add $15,500,000 to Illinois Bell's payroll costs over the various wage contract periods.

These raises for employees have sharply increased the telephone company's rising expenses. But they were necessary to bring telephone wages in line with higher wages recently granted by other industries in the territory we serve. Of equal importance, they assure you of high caliber telephone people to handle your communications problem, and the nation's communications during the challenging days that lie before us.
