WEDDING DATE CHOSEN

Thursday, April 12, is the date chosen for the wedding of Miss Barbara Lighthall and Donald Jack Harper. The 4:30 p.m. ceremony will take place in Edgebrook, Ill. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lighthall of Edgebrook and the bridegroom is the son of the John L. Harpers of 524 Fairview road. Miss Lighthall was graduated last June from Mundelein college and Mr. Harper, a member of Chi Phi fraternity, received his degree from the University of Illinois, also last June.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE HEAD

Dick Schimmelfeng, son of the Harold Schimmelfengs of Scarsdale, New York, a senior at the University of Illinois in Champaign, is head of the University Theatre there. A member of a selected group of honor students, he is also a member of Mask and Bauble, honorary Dramatics fraternity. Dick is studying to be a Librarian.

His parents moved to New York three weeks ago. They had been Highland Parkers, living at 1639 Broadview for over twenty years.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Barbara Diane Olson, daughter of the Brandt B. Olsons of 540 Longfellow ave., Deerfield, was hostess to several of her little friends last Saturday in honor of her fifth birthday.

HOME THIS MONTH

Mrs. Grace Lawther of Highwood, who has been vacationing in Florida with her daughter, Miss Marie Lawler, well known singer, will return home sometime this month.

SORORITY INITIATES

On Sunday, February 18, Miss Betty Dorick and Miss Janis Zabel, freshmen at Beloit college, were initiated into sororities. Betty is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi and Janis with Delta Gamma. Both were graduated from Highland Park High school last June. Betty is the daughter of the William Doricks of 331 North avenue and Janis' parents, the T. J. Zabels, reside at 1348 Broadview avenue.

WEEK-END AT HOME

Miss Georgia Ann Glader, a senior at Knox college in Galesburg, Ill., spent last week-end at home. Miss Glader is the daughter of the George F. Gladers of 816 Ridge-wood drive.

RETURNS TO LAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Miss Adeline Cassel, daughter of the Louis Cassels of 1400 Pleasant ave., has re-enrolled at Lake Forest college for her junior year. Adeline, who finished her first two college years at Lake Forest, spent most of the past year visiting various countries in Europe.

FLEET NEWS

Ensign Stephen J. Pollak, USN, of 605 Bronson lane, son of the Maurice Pollaks, participated in the amphibious redeployment of United Nations land forces from the Korean east coast port of Hungnam while serving aboard the destroyer USS Borie.

While the transports were loading troops and equipment in the besieged port, the guns of the Borie and other United Nations Naval vessels established a steel curtain around the shrinking defense perimeter. The pin-point bombardment, coordinated with carrier-based air attacks, made a "no man's land" of the area. Enemy troop concentrations, road junctions and vehicular traffic were pounded day and night by the ships.

ELAINE MRAZEK, A BRIDE

Commander D. Wright, chaplain, heard the exchange of nuptial vows on Saturday, February 24, when Miss Elaine Marilyn Mrazek became the bride of EM-3 William Hall Kemp, U. S. Navy. The 6 p.m. ceremony was read in the Great Lakes Hospital chapel. The bride is the daughter of the Henry

F. Mrazeks of 1706 Pleasant avenue and the bridegroom is the grandson of the William J. Kemps of Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

The bride was lovely in a lemon colored gabardine suit, white hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of two white orchids.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Donald H. Grimshaw (Jean Mrazek) of Waukegan, was her only attendant. Her navy blue gabardine suit was complemented by a grey and blue hat and accessories to match. Her corsage was of two fuchsia colored camellias.

Howard Bourne of Edison Park served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a grey wool dress and brown hat and accessories and the bridegroom's grandmother was in navy blue. The feathered hat she wore matched her dress. Each wore a corsage of fuchsia camellias.

A family reception was held at the Rustic Manor in Gurnee, following the wedding.

After a two weeks' honeymoon in Florida, Mr. Kemp and his bride will reside in Waukegan.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

After a two weeks' vacation at Miami Beach, Florida, the Misses Lillian Dinelli of Clavey road, Anne McCaffrey of 669 Central avenue, Marilyn Sheahan of 675 Central avenue, Mrs. Margaret Garrington of 1310 Pleasant avenue and Mrs. Evelyn Laurie of 630 S. St. Johns avenue returned home last week.

The Helmer Carlsons of 1897 Burton avenue will be returning this week from a month's vacation in Florida.

HOME FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greene (Jolene Nelson) have returned from a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., and are now living in Evanston. Their wedding was a recent event in the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of the J. A. Nelsons of Flora place.

Miss Virginia Nelson attended her sister as maid of honor and another sister, Mrs. C. O. Frisbie, III, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Barbara Bishop, Barbara Heuer, Georgia Pierce and Grace Van Ornum and Mrs. William Murphy.

Warren Greene served his brother as best man and the ushers were Arthur Bergman, C. O. Frisbie, III, David Kloepfer, Robert McNulty and Robert Stahl.

The bride is a graduate of Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., and Mr. Greene was graduated from Kenyon college in Gambier, O. During World War II, he served with the navy.

SUN VALLEY VACATION

Miss Betty Kerber of 903 S. Linden avenue and Miss Virginia Vandervie of 188 Hazel avenue returned Sunday from a two weeks' vacation at Sun Valley, Idaho. They were members of a group of thirty North Shore young people.

VISITING IN NORWAY

Mr. and Mrs. William Vetter of McDaniels avenue are visiting in Norway. Recent word from them tells of the ninetieth birthday celebration of Mrs. Vetter's mother. All of her children and their husbands and wives were present.

TRANSFERRED TO MINNESOTA

S-Sgt. and Mrs. H. A. Parsons and son, Christopher, who will be two years old on Wednesday, and daughter, Veronica, 8 months old, have been transferred from Mitchell Field, Long Island, New York, to Fort Ripley, Little Falls, Minn. Enroute to their new station, the Parsons' were guests of Mrs. Parsons' mother, Mrs. Florence Schmidt of 640 Homewood ave., this past week-end.

ON TELEVISION

J. Hal Reeder and his wife, the former Florence Clow, former Highland Parkers were seen on Bill Gwinn's television program at the A.B.C. television studios in Hollywood, Calif. recently. The program was both televised and filmed and will be seen in the middle west and east shortly. The Reeders reside in Los Angeles.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. Otto Anschuetz of Kansas City, Mo., is spending two weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, the Ralph Anschuetzes of Ravinia.

IN FLORIDA

Visiting with a granddaughter and her family in Fern Park, Florida, is Mrs. Ada Jones of Lake Forest, formerly of Highland Park.

FASHION SHOW MODEL

Miss Carolou Fidler, daughter of the Walter A. Fidders of Mt. Lebanon, Pa., formerly of Highland Park, took the part of the "bride" in a recent fashion show, entitled "Fashion in Dreamland", presented by the Mellon Junior High school homemaking class. Miss Fidler also modeled dresses of her own creation in the show.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK
