"THE SPORTSLIGHT"

By Will Schlichting

That 57 to 55 victory over Oak Park a few weeks ago did not do the Little Giants much good except to provide an evening of exercise for the lads. After the game it was discovered that one of the local boys had been in school a little too long, the rule being that anyone who has attended more than eight semesters in high school is ineligible. So that loss, coupled with the Oak Park victory over Waukegan last Friday, plunked our boys right back in the cellar, although they gave a much better account of themselves than the standings will show.

The Little Giant basketball teams took a double header from Evanston last Friday evening. The Frosh-Soph outlasted the visitors for a 51 to 49 win while the varsity really came to life and bagged a sweet 66 to 48 win over the Wildkats.

Friendship Club Enjoys Potluck Dinner Tonight

This evening (Thursday, March 1) the YWCA friendship club will enjoy a pot luck dinner at the "Y", followed by a social evening.

The Friendship club has a membership of about 40 girls who are employed in homes and industries in Highland Park and the surrounding communities as far away as Lake Bluff. Evangelin Metzler of Lake Forest is now president.

The purpose of the club is to provide a place where girls can find recreation, fun and creative activities. Meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays at the "Y". Once a month a dinner meeting held at 6.30 p.m.

The club sponsors activity evenings, in addition to regular meetings which are open to all members of the "Y". So far, textile and pottery painting, glass etching and cake decoration have been taught. Many more interesting classes will follow. The club is now planning week end trips during the spring and summer.

Family Worship At Congregation Israel

"How To Become A Queen" will be revealed by Dr. Edgar E. Siskin at the Family Worship Service of North Shore Congregation Israel this Friday night, March 2, at 7:45 o'clock.

The Glencoe Temple dedicates the first Friday night of each month to a Family Worship Service, and members of the Almoni (Youth Group) assist Dr. Siskin in the conduct of the service. This week Shila Goldman and Ralph Klemperer will assist in the reading of the service; the Sabbath candles will be blessed by Mary Kahn; and Pat Price and Leonard Isaacs will be the light bearers.

There's been a lot of testing going on lately, and they sure aren't six weeks tests. Are you planning to be a missionary, or are you congenial?

ELECTED PRESIDENT

Dr. H. E. Lang, 574 Central, was elected president of the Illinois Optometric Association at the closing session of the Association's 43rd annual convention in the Morrison Hotel, Monday. He succeeds Dr. Wilbur A. McHugh of Oak Park.

HI SCHOOL JINX

A lot has happened in the past two weeks, namely:

Congratulations to all people who got parts in the operetta. We have further congratulations for Mimi Angster who seems to be very forgetful; especially in gym. For further information about what Mimi forgot, see Mimi.

Ho, Ho, That's Rich. What's rich? The Little Giant, thanks to Student Stunts. It was a marvelous show, from Vassar to a quick preview of next summer's beach scenery. We send our condolences to the Army. There were parties at Warren Peterson's, Charlie Tyler's, Graham's, Barb Wing's, several in Braeside, and open houses at Carol Rows and Tim Weinfield's.

Along with losing the Waukegan game two weeks ago, we got the bad news that we have to forfeit the last Oak Park game because of ineligibility. Too bad, but nevertheless the recent double win over Evanston compensated.

The Evanston game completed the basketball season and everyone realizes the excellent job done by our boys. They certainly brought up our reputation. This game, of course, meant the end of the basketball dances at the Community Center.

On a recent Thursday we were graced with a visit from the local eighth graders. Seems they get smaller every year. Bill Ostrander, Bruno Ponsi, Dave Baum, Russ Whitney, plus various freshmen doubled as guides and baby sitters.

The vocational boys had a very enjoyable visit to Northwestern. To all who understand the circumstances this explains itself.

One apple plus some loose change provided Tom Leopold and Ernie Rabattini with a good lunch. Are you guys from Boys' Club assembly limbering up for pitching pennies? Remember, now that the weather is warmer you can go outside during lunch period.

Who's the wise one who's willing to finance Mr. Pertz's vacation providing he goes now? During sixth period E-216 the money has literally been rolling in. It comes via the aisles from the Mysterious back of the room. Talking about Geoff Finlay. . .

We've heard that there's a chorus party coming up this Friday. Some of those rumors about the floor show. We never knew about the hidden talents of Norman Bell, Don Ruffalo, and George Burmeister.

Two girls have found a red convertible very alluring. Better watch it, Jim Gillespie.

The tow truck companies around HP have been doing very well in business lately. They can thank Johnny Reitz for his "carelessness."

Everybody agrees that Swing Club last Saturday night was just about the best yet. New Trier turned out in full force. Afterwards there were parties at Jim Goldsmith's, Russ Whitney's; Diebler's, and lots of little two couple ones. Paul Jones is taking this line as his theme song: "Let me in, I hear laughter, Let me in, open up the door." It was rumored that there was a party at Johnny Reitz. Alice Walker had a very private get-together that night also.
