B. And P. Woman's Club Plans Spring Style Show March 8

Along with the first robin of the season, the Business and Professional Woman's Club will bring to the North Shore communities a showing of spring fashions of interest to all women.

Through the courtesy of Betty's of Winnetka many lovely dresses, suits, and coats will be modeled by members of the New Trier Career Girls' Club. The hats and accessories will be from the shop of Marion Halliwell in Wilmette.

While fashions will be the keynote of the occasion, the club members assure their patrons that music, refreshments, door prizes, and beautifully decorated surroundings will add to the general air of festivity. The Edwards Florist, through the kindness of Mr. Herman Wenk, is the gracious benefactor for the last-named attraction.

Members of the Club have a generous supply of tickets, and they will be grateful and happy to see a full house at the Community House Theatre in Winnetka on March 8. This style show is a Club benefit for the Celia Howard Fellowship.

Girl Scout News

by Mrs. M. E. Tippey

Elm Place PTA mothers were able to leave their small children with Bunny Elwood, Jean Ann Crawford and Gail Willis during their last meeting. Eighth grade Troop 33 at Elm Place supplied the service.

Brownie troop 58 (4th grade, Braeside) had a "Thinking Day" at a recent meeting, during which they quietly talked over the Girl Scout Promise and Laws and talked about Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts in the United States. Rebecca Kahn, troop reporter, tells about this, and also that she, as Juliette Low representative for this year, would be bringing their troop's contribution to the World Friendship Fund to the city-wide Juliette Low party at the Highland Park Recreation Center on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Milton Gray and Miss Arlene Goodhart are the troop's leaders.

Carol Johnson, reporter and Juliette Low representative for Troop 36 (5th grade, Braeside) reports that her troop had an unusual meeting where the girls had fun discussing musical instruments that girls can play. Ila Garfinkel showed them how to play the trumpet. Gail Kelly played the drums, and Jane Maxon, the piano. This is the same troop that made the beautiful bath rugs, displayed in the library around Christmas time. One is also on display in the Girl Scout office. Mrs. James Kelly and Mrs. Volney Hutchinson are co-leaders of the troop.

Braeside's sixth grade Troop 12, headed by Mrs. Elzie Partlow and Mrs. Albert Slepyan, recently had a formal tea for their mothers. Barbara Kriser was the hostess in charge of introductions; Barbara Slepyan, Barbara Kurtzon and Barbara Partlow decorated the tea table with red and white paper, and silver candlesticks with red candles. Alice Abrams (troop reporter) and Diana Siegman poured tea; while Penny Davidson, Judy Lewis and Carol Falk served. Barbara Yellen and Joan Cantin kept the cookie trays filled. Coffee and tea pots were tended by Carolyn Schroeder. Four kinds of tea sandwiches and some pastry were served.

Carol Falk and four of the Barbaras (Partlow, Slepyan, Kriser and Kurtzon) also prepared and served tea at the last meeting of the Golden Circle. Carolyn Schroeder helped them make the cookies, but could not come to the tea. The tea table featured a Washington's birthday centerpiece of a little branch decorated with cranberries (for cherries).

Roxane Russ, reporter for Troop 32 (5th grade, Ravinia) describes a fashion show and party given by her troop for their mothers and for Troop 16 (their sister troop in the 5th grade). The girls are working on the Good Grooming badge along with their second class work, and had spent some time in a study of modeling clothes and how to properly wear their own. Betsy Gidwitz, who was to do the announcing, was sick at the last minute, so Judy Hexter took over her job. Jean Bartleman modeled a skirt and blouse for school wear; Ann Gegner, blue jeans and T-shirt for after school; Carol Sue Feldman, a suit; Brina Edelman, navy shorts and T-shirt for hot weather play; Cynthia Barbee, a green coat and brown hat; Roxane Russ, a riding outfit; and Elaine Goldberg, pajamas and robe. After this, just for the fun of it, the girls had a mock wedding, in costume, which was such a success that the guests asked them to go through it twice. Mrs. Myron Hexter and Mrs. Kenneth Russ lead this troop.

Nancy Keare, of Troop 15 (7th grade, Ravinia) reports that most of her troop are working on the First Aid badge, and are meeting

OBITUARIES

On Friday, February 23, the day following her 69th birthday, Mrs. Grace Martin Cottrell of 563 Detamble ave., passed away at the Highland Park hospital. Mrs. Cottrell, who was born on February 22, 1882 in Beaver Island, Michigan, had made her home here with a daughter, Mrs. A. E. Johnson for the past 23 years.

Before coming to Highland Park to live, Mrs. Cottrell had lived in Milwaukee for twenty-five years, where funeral services were held on Monday, February 26. Interment was in Forest Home cemetery, Milwaukee.

Besides Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Cottrell is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Harold C. Youngs, also of Highland Park, and 3 grandchildren.

Mooney

Funeral services were held yesterday morning, Wednesday, Feb. 28, at 10 a.m. at Holy Cross church, Deerfield, for Thomas Mooney, 83, of 155 N. Ridge Road. Mr. Mooney, son of pioneer Highland Parkers, passed away at home on Sunday, February 25.

A retired farmer, Mr. Mooney was born on May 27, 1868 in Highland Park.

Surviving besides his wife, Cecelia, nee Zahnle, are a son, James of Highland Park, 2 grandchildren; one brother, Joseph of Florida, formerly of Highland Park, and two sisters, Miss Mary Mooney and Mrs. Margaret Garrity, both of Highland Park. Another sister, Mrs. Roseanne Peters, also of Highland Park, preceded him in death.

Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, Highland Park, also known as Mooney's cemetery. Mr. Mooney owned the cemetery which was originally donated to the Bishop of Chicago by his father.

Reimers

Patrons of Garnett's Beauty Shop will be sorry to learn of the death of Lois Reimers, tiny Danish beautician, who was employed there until the past few weeks. She was 21 years old.

While driving with her cousin to her work in Libertyville, on Highway 21, last Saturday, poor visibility, caused by dense fog, led to collision with a truck. The cousin was seriously injured and Lois met instant death.

Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reimers of Grays Lake, two brothers, Robert and Larry, and a younger sister, Alice. Services were held on Tuesday in Grays Lake.

Rogers

Mrs. Frances Hayes Rogers, 61, passed away on Monday, February 26, at the Chicquapin Rest Home in Half Day, Illinois.

Originally from Detroit, Michigan, she was born on July 14, 1882 and was a Highland visitor at the home of the Michael O'Briens, relatives. The O'Briens, former Highland Parkers, now live in Winnetka. Mrs. Rogers had many friends here.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, February 27 at 9 a.m. at St. James church, Highland. Interment was at Lone, Michigan.

Rovandi

Last rites were read at the Seguin Funeral Home, 52 N. Second street, on Thursday morning, February 22, at 9:30 a.m. for Ernest Rovandi, 63, of 250 Highwood ave., Highwood.

Mr. Rovandi, who was born in Pavullo, Italy, on July 19, 1887, was taken by death on Tuesday, February 20, at the Highwood hospital, after a short illness. He came to Highwood in 1911 and had been a maintenance man at the Ermine Cleaners at the time of his death.

Burial was in Ascension cemetery, Libertyville. There are no known survivors.

Wednesday nights with Lincoln school troops for training. local hospital and help and financial aid to a substantial list of worthy causes.

Commander Sheehy further states that the Highland Park Post of the American Legion is not only deeply grateful for this award by the Freedom Foundation, but justly proud that the efforts of the post and its members in conducting a community program were ranked as third in judging a great number of others conducted by all types of men's and women's organizations throughout the nation. It is, he adds, fine and fitting tribute to the Legionnaires who conceived, organized and conducted the various phases of this well rounded program of service to not only the community but the State and the Nation.

The Freedom Foundation Inc., with headquarters in Valley Forge, Pa., is a nonprofit, nonpolitical, nonsectarian organization chartered in 1949 with the aim of making annual awards to persons, organizations and others making an outstanding contribution to a better understanding of freedom.

Highland Park was further signally honored, in the fourth place award, in the sermon category, for the sermon which was given by Dr. William Atkinson Young, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Highland Park. It is further interesting to note that his award was for a sermon, "Our Heritage," preached on April 24, 1950, at a service in connection with the "Go To Church Sunday" program sponsored by the local Legion Post on that day and attended by the members in a group. It is also interesting to note that the Highland Park Legion Post received the highest award given any organization in the Midwest for its program of service to the community.

Women Of The Moose Plan Style Show March 10

Mrs. William Rankin, social service chairman of chapter 806, Women of the Moose, is planning a style show to be held at the Moose home on March 10. There will be awards and refreshments.

On March 28 and 29 a rummage sale will be held at the Moose Home. Junior Regent Mrs. Walter Harms is chairman of the committee. For donations call HI. 2-2983 or take to the Moose home after 4:30 p.m.

A Silver Tea was given by Ritual Chairman Mrs. Fred Farmer and committee at the Moose home on the afternoon of Sunday, February 25.

At the last open meeting birthday gifts were given to five members. Three new members were initiated.

N. Shore Methodist Women Meet Tomorrow

The Foster-Grosstephen Circle of the North Shore Methodist Church of Glencoe, which is composed primarily of Highland Park residents, will meet for an all day sewing meeting, at 10:30 a.m., Friday, March 2nd, in the home of Mrs. Willis M. Foster, 544 Woodlawn avenue, Glencoe. Members and friends of the Circle will bring their own sandwiches, and Mrs. Foster will serve a dessert luncheon at one o'clock. The day will be spent in sewing on bathrobes, and bibs for the Children's Wards of the Wesley Memorial Hospital in Chicago, which is the Missionary Project of this Circle.

in number, and in civil defense, Red Cross has been charged with the responsibility for making people really self-sufficient in times of emergency through its program of first aid and home nursing training for millions. At the present time Mrs. Jackson Smart is conducting classes in first aid, at the Y.W.C.A. and Mrs. A. S. Bauer is conducting classes in home nursing. "The National Security Resources Board" has asked the Red Cross to train 20,000,000 persons in first aid and home nursing as quickly as possible.

In addition, the Red Cross has been appointed the official procurement agency for all blood at a time when the demands for whole blood and plasma are increasing daily. Building a vast stockpile of blood plasma for defense needs has begun. The enthusiastic support of every citizen of Highland Park is needed to carry out the program outlined for us.
