BRIDAL PARTIES

In honor of Miss Barbara Floyd, whose marriage to Gerald Roland Roberts will take place on Saturday, March 24, Mrs. A. E. Wolters of 1303 Judson avenue and Miss Mary Ferguson of 608 Delta road will be co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower next Thursday night at the Ferguson home.

Barbara will arrive home from her studies at Colorado university next Thursday.

Pre-nuptial parties given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Cumming, who will become the bride of Robert F. Will on Saturday, included a luncheon and shower on Thursday, March 8, given by the teachers of the Central school in North Chicago, where Miss Cumming is Home Economics teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cumming of 745 S. St. Johns avenue will give the rehearsal dinner for their daughter and her fiance at the Deerpath Inn, Lake Forest, tomorrow night.

DELTA GAMMA INITIATE

Mrs. Paul Date of 1726 Rice street was in Appleton, Wisconsin on Sunday for the initiation of her daughter, Marilyn, into Delta Gamma sorority.

WEDDING ATTENDANT

Mrs. Howard Bauer (Jean Burke) of Long Grove, Illinois, spent several days this past week at the home of her grandparents, the E. G. Hubers of 209 S. Green Bay road.

Mrs. Bauer's parents, the Harold Burkes (Lois Huber) are now living in Milwaukee, Wis. The Burkes' other daughter, Lois, is a student at Stephens college in Missouri.

ATTEND NAPERVILLE SWIMMING MEET

Mr. and Mrs. William C. McCulloch of 1358 Broadview avenue have been in attendance at both the Illinois college conference swimming meet in Bloomington on Saturday, March 3, and the Midwest Invitational meet held at North Central college in Naperville last Saturday.

David won first place in the backstroke on March 3 and again took first place in the backstroke at the March 10 meet. He also distinguished himself by breaking the conference record and by coming in third in the individual medley.

AT INDIANA U.

Two students from Highland Park are on the Indiana University freshman honors list for the first semester that ended recently, where a total of 292 students, representing 12.5 percent of the freshman class, qualified for the list.

They are Barnard Barnes, 618 Lincoln Ave., and Lawrence Feldman, 1232 Sunnyside Lane.

CARIBBEAN CRUISE

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy J. Silverman, 1310 Broadview, sailed from

New Orleans, on March 10, aboard the Alcoa Clipper, luxury liner of the Alcoa Steamship Company, for a 16-day Caribbean cruise. During the voyage, they will visit Port of Spain, Trinidad; Willemstad, Curacao; Kingston, Jamaica; Guanta, La Guaira, Puerto Cabello and Caracas, Venezuela.

Mr. Silverman is vice-president and sales manager of the Northern Seating Company which manufactures furniture for hotels, schools, hospitals, motels and dormitories.

"We export to Israel, Alaska and to Hawaii," he pointed out, "and we are making plans to start manufacturing our products in Canada and probably in the Canal Zone."

WED IN ROCKFORD

On Sunday, March 11, at 2:30 p.m. in the bride's home in Rockford, Illinois, Audrey Jean Dickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Dickens, was united in marriage to Jerome Burns Peterson, son of the Lindell Petersons, 222 S. Green Bay rd., Highland Park. The vows were read by Rev. Franklin Zentz, of Court Street Methodist church, Rockford.

Gowned in a beige gaberdine costume suit, with violet accessories and corsage of violets, the bride was attended by her sister, Karen, who was dressed in blue. Frank Peterson attended his brother, as best man. A small reception for the immediate families followed the ceremony.

The bride attended University of California and the Art Institute of Chicago. Mr. Peterson, a 1946 graduate of Highland Park-High, was graduated from Purdue University in 1950, where he was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. He was employed by the Allied Oil Company of Cleveland prior to his induction into the Army, and is now stationed in Salt Lake City, Utah, in the chemical research division of the Army at Dugway Proving Ground. The couple will make their home in Salt Lake City.

TAKES PART IN BELOIT PLAY

Bill Hesler, of S. Green Bay road, a student at Beloit college, took the part of playwright Peter Sloan, in a presentation of "Light Up The Sky" given by Beloit students on Friday and Saturday nights in Beloit.

SOUTHERN VACATION
