

Deep and Shallows

Happy Easter!

(Taken from an Easter greeting card.)
 "When the willow tree has kittens,
 And the old red flannels itch,
 When we git to shed our mittens
 And our overshoes, and sich,
 When the robins start to nestin'
 And the hens are settin', too,
 Then it's time to be investin'
 In an Easter wish fer you!
 HAPPY EASTER!"

Darling

(Poem from a lonesome G. I. to his wife. Unedited)

Some nights when I am lonesome
 And don't quite know what to do,
 I sit and look at a map,
 And wish I were there with you.

Just a few little colored squares
 That my mind just jumps across,
 Then my heart and mind at wits'
 end
 Would never again be at a loss.

I know you cannot be with me,
 dear heart,
 But still the flame of love burns
 bright,
 To show me the way back home
 Thru a dark Korean night.

Ravinia Auxiliary To Chicago Commons Assn. Plans Rummage Sale

Attractive posters made by Mrs. William Savin and Mrs. Walter Lillie will be placed in store windows directly after Easter in Highland Park, Highwood and Deerfield, to inform their respective residents of the annual Rummage Sale of the Ravinia Auxiliary to the Chicago Commons Association at the YWCA on Laurel ave., Friday morning March 30, from 9 o'clock to twelve-thirty.

In charge of the Sale is Mrs. Edwin P. Hart, HI. 2-3062, and Chairman of the Group is Mrs. Guy B. Finlay, 523 S. St. Johns ave. The proceeds from this Sale are used to send young boys and girls from the underprivileged district on Grand ave., Chicago, in which the Commons Neighborhood Settlement is located, to its summer camp near New Buffalo, Ind. There, in cool woods, the children can forget the noisy hot streets which are their only year round playground, and romp and eat to their hearts' content for a two week period. The Auxiliary is a small working group, and it welcomes rummage from any interested citizen in this locality.

Such donors can leave their contributions of rummage at the YWCA on Thursday, March 29 in the afternoon, in Mrs. Finlay's garage, on Mrs. Dudley Hall's side porch, 824 S. St. Johns ave., or can telephone Mrs. Hart to ask to have it picked up. Every member of the Auxiliary will help sort and price the articles Thursday afternoon and sell them Friday morning. They are eager to have a large assortment of clothing for men, women and children, furniture, bricabrac, jewelry, kitchen utensils, pictures, books—all at a very reasonable price, for this very worthy cause.

Gorilla Phil has a nasty bite—He's in a most perplexing plight. The itch that goads his good left heel

Is hard to bear—and heck to feel! His keepers can't get near to treat it, Much as they'd like to—Can you beat it?

And if he digs at it, they feel, The nasty bite will never heal. So if he even tries to scratch it, They have a penalty to match it. . . . Lest some dire injury be done, They pelt him with a bee-bee gun. If Phil so much as makes a motion To indicate he has a notion Of easing that outlandish sting They up and let him have it—zing!

This makes it terrible for Phil—The remedy's a bitter pill! And all he does is mope and grouch. . . . He's just four hundred pounds of ouch!

Ah, Phil, you have real cause for pining— But this cloud, too, has a silver lining. . . . Chin up! That horrid itchy feeling Is said to be a sign of healing.
