BARBARA FLOYD, A BRIDE

A very pretty wedding took place in the Highland Park Presbyterian church on Saturday, March 24, at 4:30 p.m. when Miss Barbara Ellen Floyd became the bride of Gerald Roland Roberts. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the John David Floyds of 441 St. Johns place and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Roberts of Alamosa, Colo.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an ivory satin gown, made with a fitted bodice, trimmed in antique lace, and a very full skirt, which ended in a short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a satin Juliet cap headress. The pearls she wore were a single strand. The Ivory satin covered Bible, which she carried, was one that had been given to her mother on her seventh birthday by her parents. It was passed on to Barbara, also on her seventh birthday. To it was attached a single white orchid, and lilies of the valley were knotted into its white satin ribbon markers.

The bride's attendants were dressed alike in aqua satin frocks made with boleros, full skirts and matching sashes, tied in big bows in the back. The heart shaped bouquet of the matron of honor, Mrs. Don Ingwersen of Dallas, Tex., was of yellow roses, while the bridesmaids, the Misses Mildred Deem, Meredith Barr, Patricia Bartell and Nancy Johnson, carried American Beauty roses, also in heart shaped bouquets.

Best man was Gerald Cedrone of North Arlington, N. Y., and the ushers were John Floyd of Evanston, cousin of the bride; Charles Hunter of Highland Park; Don Ingwersen of Dallas, Tex., and Gary Oakley of Lincolnwood, Ill. Mr. Leonard Balsam sang, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Almira Lundgren Snyder of Evanston.

The bride's mother chose a dress of rose colored crepe for the occasion, complemented by a soft green hat, rose trimmed, and a corsage of camellias. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

Mr. Roberts and his bride will reside in Denver, Colo. He is a graduate of the University of Colorado, where his bride was in her junior year.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Moore of Salisbury, N. C., brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Floyd; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Floyd, also of Salisbury, Mr. Floyd's brother and sister-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Floyd of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Floyd of Evanston, also brothers and their wives; Mrs. M. Her fingertip veil fell from an Ivory satin Juliet cap, covered with chantilly lace and pearl trimmed. She carried a bouquet of baby white orchids and stephanotis. The bride is the daughter of the Arthur Wolfs of 1035 Marion avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Milton H. Grauers of Glencoe.

Miss Marjorie Wolf, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor, and Mrs. Hugo Melvoin (Lois Grauer), sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Audrey Agatstein and Carol Brown and Mrs. Howard Lehman (Ann Silverman), all of Highland Park; Miss Lois Ehrenreich of Glencoe and Miss Marjorie Shapira of Chicago, home on Spring vacation from Smith College where she is a student. Their ankle length dresses of powder blue organdy, were made with off-the-shoulder scalloped necklines. The maid of honor carried dark rose colored camellias while the other attendants' arm bouquets were of pink tulips, varying from very pale shades to the deeper tones.

Best man was Milton Grauer, father of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Hugo Melvoin and Andrew Stein of Highland Park; Richard Lepman and James Scheinfeld of Glencoe; Howard Lehman of Winnetka and Mark Goodman of Chicago.

Vital to a Strong America

CALLS VITAL to national defense are riding Illinois Bell's wires today—at this very minute. Troops must be moved, orders filled, material shipped in mounting quantities.

All these activities
—get started by telephone
—keep going by telephone
—move faster by telephone

We are handling about 25,000 more Long Distance calls a day than we did "before Korea"... a quarter-million more local calls. They're coming faster all the time.

Defense plants are calling Illinois Bell for more cable, more wire, more telephones and switchboards. Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Fort Sheridan, the Glenview Air Base and other camps are calling for ever increasing telephone service. Civil defense and the air raid warning network require specially designed telephone systems linking communities over thousands of square miles.

Today, more than ever, good telephone service is one of this nation's most vital tools. It must be kept strong and dependable through the critical days ahead.
