JOAN LIMBACK, A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Joan Lorraine Limback, daughter of the Harry M. Limbacks of 2278 Sheridan road and Albert McEnergy Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Aubrey Skinner of Fort Smith, Arkansas took place in the St. James church in Highland on Tuesday, April 10. The 10:30 a.m. nuptial mass was read by the Rev. Arthur Douaire. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Both the bride and her aunt, Mrs. Bernard Amberson of Chicago, who was her only attendant, chose navy blue suits for the occasion. The bride's corsage was of white orchids and Mrs. Amberson's corsage was of gardenias.

A fraternal brother of the bridegroom served as best man.

The bride's mother was also in a navy blue suit and her corsage was of gardenias, also.

The bride, who attended Sacred Heart and Barat college for one year, received her degree from Northwestern university last June. Mr. Skinner received his master's degree in music at Northwestern this past March. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Following a family breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Skinner and his bride left for California where they will make their home.

HOSTS AT TEA

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Boynton of 608 Hawthorne lane were hosts at tea on Saturday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bard of Lake Forest and Mr. and Mrs. Rawleigh Warner of Winnetka who set sail yesterday for Europe. Originally the Boyntons were to have made the trip with them, but changed their plans. The Bards and Warners will return early in June.

HOME SUNDAY FROM CALIFORNIA

Miss Betty Karger, Highland Park editor of the Waukegan News Sun, will return Sunday night by plane after a three weeks' vacation on the west coast. During her stay at the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles, she visited many former Highland Parkers, among them the Gene Singers, Mrs. Miriam Peters Smith and Miss Josephine Budinger.

In Riverside she was the guest of the Kelly Crokes; Mrs. Edward Glover and young son, Tommy, of 1225 Burton avenue and Mrs. John W. Sorsen of 547 Gray avenue, who were visiting at the Crokes' home. Mrs. Sorsen has already returned home and Mrs. Glover and Tommy will be home sometime in May. Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Croke are sisters.

Miss Karger also visited with the Edward Koebelins in Banning and spent a few days in San Francisco, San Bernardino, Santa Monica and Palm Springs. In Beverly Hills she was the guest of her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Bernstein. Mrs. Bernstein is the former Babette Rothschild, former Highland Parkers.

VISIT PARENTS

Mr. Robert Craig and his bride, the former Mildred Spliethoff, spent Saturday and Sunday as the guests of his parents, the Arthur Craigs of 616 Laurel ave. Both Mr. and Mrs. Craig are students at North Central college in Naperville.

Their wedding, which was an event of March 17, at 3 p.m. in the Evangelical United Brethren church in Freeport, was a double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the Englebert Splietthoffs of Freeport.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Zoltan Kato of Chicago, matron of honor, and by Mrs. Edward Brog of Naperville and Miss Audrey Parker of Bay City, Michigan, bridesmaids. Flower girl was Sandra Burkhardt of Freeport.

Norman Christman of Laurel avenue served as best man and the ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Bradford of Peoria and Otto Flacksmann of Detroit, Mich. About 150 relatives and friends attended the reception which followed immediately after the ceremony in the church parlors.

TO ATTEND FATHER'S DAY AT BRIARCLIFFE

Samuel H. Bingham, Jr. of 612 N. Sheridan road will leave this week-end for the east, where he will attend the Father's Day week-end at Briarcliffe college, where his daughter, Diane, is a student. While there he will be able to see his daughter take the leading part in the senior presentation of "Personal Appearance". Miss Bingham will graduate this June.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A few friends dropped in on Saturday night to help Mrs. Florence Schmidt of 640 Homewood avenue celebrate her birthday. The children of Mrs. Florence Schmidt, who were present, were: John, 8, Billy, 4, and Suzanne Mary, 6 months.

Until her son and his wife and family, the Frank Schmidts, formerly of Atlanta, Ga., are able to find a place of their own, they will be living with Mrs. Schmidt. Frank, who is connected with a rubber company, was recently transferred to Chicago. Their children are Jean, 8, Billy, 4, and Suzanne Mary, 6 months.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE FOR MAEARTHUR RECEPTION

Important notice to telephone subscribers in Highland Park

The new telephone directory for Highland Park is going to press soon and we want to make sure that all our subscribers are listed in it correctly.

Because of the changes now being made in street names and numbers, we recently mailed a postpaid, return post card to all of our Highland Park customers. We asked that it be filled in with their correct address and returned to us.

To those of you who have returned the cards... Thanks—a lot.

To those of you who have not... Will you? Please?

If you have lost the card just call our business office (Highland Park 2-9981) and give the information to your Service Representative.

The street numbering change project is provided for by city ordinance and needs the co-operation of every family and business to make it a success.

PLEASE SEND CORRECT ADDRESS

Getting the job done promptly is important to your fire and police protection, your mail delivery—and your telephone service.

Unless we have your correct address—You will be listed incorrectly in the next directory.

Our office records will also be incorrect, resulting in possible delays if you should need a telephone repairman, etc.

Our "Information" operators may not be able to handle calls to your number promptly.
