HAROLD W. SCHIMMELPFENG, TAKES A BRIDE FRIDAY

The Howes Memorial chapel at Northwestern was the scene of the wedding of Miss Patricia Bowen and Harold W. Schimmelpfeng, Jr. on Friday, May 4. The nuptial vows were exchanged at 7:00 p.m. by candlelight. About 45 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Byron Burt of 2223 Birchwood ave., Wilmette. The bride is the daughter of the Leslie George Bowens of Evanston and the bridegroom is the son of the senior Schimmelpfengs of Scarsdale, N. Y., formerly of Ravinia.

The bride's white slipper satin gown ended in a short train and her fingertip veil fell from a tiara headdress. She carried gardenias. The bride's sister, Miss Betty Bowen, attended as maid of honor. Her frock was of pale green organza and her bouquet of spring flowers.

Richard Schimmelpfeng, a senior at the University of Illinois, served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dinner dress for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in brown. Each wore an orchid corsage.

After a few days' wedding trip to Turkey Run, Ind., Mr. Schimmelpfeng and his bride are now residing in Evanston.

The bride attended Denison college in Ohio where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Schimmelpfeng is a graduate of Northwestern university. He is now manager of Hobby Models, Evanston.

ATTENDS MOTHER'S DAY FESTIVITIES AT DE PAUW

Mrs. A. Gordon Humphrey of 1321 Judson avenue attended the Mother's Day festivities at De Pauw university in Greencastle, Ind., this past week-end. Mrs. Humphrey was the guest of Miss Kathie Kelsey at the Delta Zeta sorority house. She divided her time between her son, Jim, a freshman this year, and Miss Kelsey.

Kathie is the fiancee of the Humphreys' other son, Arthur, who is at present a chemist-geologist in the army, stationed in Maryland. Art graduated from De Pauw last June. Their wedding will be an event of July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey recently returned from a ten day stay at their summer home in Colorado. While in Colorado, they visited with several former Sunday school students, who are now students at the University of Colorado. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Roland Roberts (Barbara Floyd) of Denver, Colo. Mr. Humphrey took office as mayor of Highland Park on Monday.

The Turners will also give a dinner party in their honor on Wednesday evening and their daughter, Miss Jan-Ann Turner, will be hostess at a party at the Exmoor Country club for them on Saturday night.

WEDDING RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Holland of 336 Delta road announced the marriage of their daughter, Gloria Mae, to William H. Woods, son of Mrs. W. H. Woods of Monmouth, Ill., which took place on Saturday, Dec. 16 in Evanston. A reception was given in their honor at the Highland Park Woman's club on Sunday, April 29, by the bride's parents. Among those attending was the mother of the bridegroom and her sister, Mrs. Ward F. Lucas, who were house guests of the Hollands.

The bride is a graduate of the Highland Park High school and was awarded the H. G. A. scholarship there and the Fifth award. She attended Monmouth college for four years and was graduated there in 1948. A member of Kappa Delta sorority, she was president of the chapter during her last year. She was also a member of the National Collegiate Players and of Sigma Tau Delta fraternity, national honorary in English and writing.

Mr. Woods, who entered the service after his graduation from High school, was released from the navy in 1946, after which he spent two years at Monmouth college. He was graduated from the University of Illinois in February, 1950. At Monmouth he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity; Alpha Kappa Psi, commerce fraternity, and of Pi Alpha Mu, honorary musical fraternity. At the University of Illinois he was a member of the University's concert band and of the football band. Twice he received national honors for his clarinet solo work.

Among parties in Mrs. Woods' honor was a kitchen shower, given by the Junior Auxiliary of the Highland Park Woman's club board, at the home of Mrs. Clara E. Jones, senior advisor, 379 Cedar ave. Miss Alice Edwards of Chicago was hostess at a personal shower in the bride's honor and the Misses Joan Peters and Barbara Clark gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Peters. Also honored with a shower at this party was Mrs. William Karger of Ravinia.
