Memorial For Missionary

Just a little over a year ago Mrs. Ella Rostad, missionary to India from the Evangelical Congregational Church died in Churachandpjur, India. Because she was partially supported by the and because she had many personal friends among its members, the church has set aside Sunday, that day in her memory. The pas-Nearly 70 troops under their tor will preach a memorial sermon and opportunity will be given to financially in providing a new Hostel on the field in her memory.

Mrs. Rostad served for twentytwo years on her station which was on the Burma Border close to the beginning of the Burma Road. Several times during the war her compound was bombed and the children of her mission school were forced to flee. Her patience and persistence in continuing the work which she began have endeared her to all who are interested in missionary work.

Today, May 17, from to 5 p.m., the Cradle Roll children together with their parents will meet for an afternoon frolic hall, 587 W. Central ave. Mrs. Byron Brandt is leader of the Cradle Roll department of the Sunday School. Baptized children of 3 years and younger are members of this pre-Sunday School group. Mrs. Brandt announces that after the planned program, refreshments and a memento will be given all those attending.
