Dr. William Atkinson Young, Minister, will preside over the early part of the service and introduce Mrs. Church. Special music will be provided by the Chancel Quartet under the direction of Mr. Harold Finch, director.

The church service on June 10 will be the last of the eleven o'clock services until next fall. The 10:30 schedule of Sunday morning service will begin on June 17, with Dr. Young and the Rev. Greenfield occupying the pulpit throughout most of the summer.

Yacht Club Opens Sailing Season

The sailing season opened officially in local waters with the Memorial Day race staged by the North Shore Yacht Club off the Park avenue boating beach. The race was scheduled for the class and mixed fleets, and was sailed over a triangular course with an extra leeward-windward leg to the north mark.

"Skip" Wynkoop in his Fleetwind Arrow sloop "Sans Peur" was first with time of 1:14:48. Commodore Gunter Schwandt's "Hardtack" was second, and John Keim's "Moonbeam" third.

The race was sailed over a new course similar to that used by large and well established clubs in this area, and the time of local club boats over this course indicates they can hold their own in any company. The race was started and timed from a new platform erected for the purpose on the beach. Races are scheduled for every Sunday during the season and an impressive array of trophies awaits those sailors coming out on top at the end of the summer.

Welfare Groups Stage Annual Luncheon With Floor Show

The annual luncheon of the four Infant Welfare groups of Highland Park and Ravinia was held at the Moraine Hotel on May 23. The very successful and enjoyable affair was arranged by Mrs. E. E. Mead and Mrs. Wm. Gooch. Tasteful decorations of geraniums were arranged by Mrs. Wm. Elston. All were members of the junior groups.

Guests from the downtown headquarters, introduced by Mrs. Milton Hardacre, president of the Junior group 1, were: Mrs. McCreary, superintendent of nurses, Miss Townsend, extension secretary, and Mrs. McCord, president of the Infant Welfare auxiliary. Representatives of the local newspapers were also introduced.

Each of the four groups participated in the entertainment. The senior group presented a clever skit portraying an Infant Welfare meeting 100 years from now, with futuristic costumes. Taking part were Mesdames Edwin Hadley, John Morrissy, Elwood Hansmann, C. L. Felske, James Davis and Lindell Peterson. Mrs. Hadley was in charge of the skit.

Groups 1 and 2 of the Juniors put on a song and dance. Mrs. John Kies and Mrs. Warner Smoot, as "juniors", introduced the 13 chorines dressed as little girls and holding cards spelling Infant Welfare. Words of the song were created by Mrs. R. Gillispie, music by Mrs. Lawrence Smith and choreography by Mrs. James Kelly. In the chorus line were Mesdames Benjamin Armbruster, Charles Sproul, James Kelly, Herbert Carlson, Norman Vance, John Embich, John Harmon, Robert Gillispie, Harry Johnson, William Oliver, George Harrison, G. S. Shallberg, Jr. and Emerson Mead.

Infant Welfare Wings concluded the entertainment with an entertaining take-off on a Paris fashion show. Mrs. Darwin Rummel commented for the following models: Mesdames Charles Rietz, Robert Sanders, William Papp, Glen Keats, Robert Thomas, Robert Walker, William Martin and Courtney B. Clow.
