The bridesmaids, Mrs. Clyde Salyards, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Geno Tazioli, were similarly dressed in aqua colored frocks. The attendants all carried white peonies and stephanotis and their headdresses were of white carnations.

Donald Hintz served the bridegroom as best man and George Kilkenny and Geno Tazioli ushered.

The bride's mother chose a dress of pink marquisette over taffeta and white accessories for the occasion, complemented by a corsage of gardenias.
