So Long, "Ole"....

You go through life and you meet lots of folks.
Most become acquaintances.
Some become friends.
Few stick with you and are life-long friends.

Lester S. Olson was a life-long friend, the kind of friend who sincerely believed in helping others....

"Les" Olson was not only a highly skilled printer, with a rare creative touch, but he was also publisher of this newspaper, Highland Park's official publication.

"Les" Olson said YES to life. His encouragement brought success to many in the newspaper field. His superior printing talent helped local firms gain outstanding reputations. He helped two returning service men to complete their "G. I." training in the printing and publishing field. One, his son, Brandt (Bus) Olson (U. S. Marine Corps) who will carry on with the business and the other, Will Schlichting (U. S. Army) who will assist.

Highland Park will miss "Les" Olson—one of this city's best citizens who did everything in his power to make Highland Park the finest of all the North Shore towns.

So long, "Ole".

It has been really wonderful being a friend of yours!

In Appreciation

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our wonderful neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement.

Thanks also to the members of the local Police and Fire Departments, the neighboring Police Departments, Illinois Police Association, City Council, and all the city employees.

The burial service as conducted by Post 4737 V.F.W. with our good friend Henry Hansen acting as Chaplain was very impressive, and we wish to express our thanks for everything you did to help us in our hours of sorrow.

University Settlement To Hold Annual Spring Party

Highland Park members of the Northwestern University Settlement and their husbands, will hold their Annual Spring Party on Saturday evening, June 23, in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Knight. The fine "White Elephant" that each couple will bring as their ticket of admission will go to replenish the shelves of the Thrift Shop; supported jointly by them and members of the Highland Park Hospital Auxiliary and the Infant Welfare Society.

These parties have been famous for their originality and fun, and all remember the time when members modeled clothing from the Thrift Shop racks in a "Style Show," including the complete attire for the bride and all her attendants.

This year the theme will be "Country Fare," patterned after eating places at the Farmers Market in Los Angeles. The guests will dine at small tables with checked table cloths, under gay umbrellas, and will select turkey, ham or hearty hamburgers from a Chuck Wagon. Other delicacies will come from famous recipes of enterprising members.

Mrs. Claburn E. Jones is the President of this organization, and those active in arrangements for the party include Mrs. Frederick E. Carpenter, Mrs. Benjamin F. Lewis, Mrs. Bernard E. Newman, Mrs. Robert F. Walker, and Mrs. Harry J. Van Ornum.

Weekend Party Follows Successful Play

After the recent success of the Highland Park Community Players rendition of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," came an exciting party. Twenty-two of the players, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Cullen, had a gay weekend at Echo Point Lodge in the Wisconsin Dells. Portia Allen, Barbara Clarke and Marty Shapiro donned chef's caps and cooked over a hot barbecue for three days while the rest swam, boated and sunned in ideal weather. If the work of the Players is a good enough excuse for more week ends, the suburbs can be assured of many more good plays.

Recent elections saw the retirement of hard working William Casey, III. Barbara Clarke, who works at the Public Library when not making plans for the Players, is the new president. She is assisted by an Executive Board consisting of William Karger, Louise Korst, Joan Winter, Pat Erskine, Ted Winter and Tom Lederer.

Although it isn't official yet, plans indicate that season subscriptions will be sold and that children's plays will be included in the Fall-Winter schedule. Further news items will appear from time to time which will be of interest to all those inclined to support good amateur theatrics.

Infant Welfare Group To Meet Monday

Mrs. Paul Date, 1726 Rice st., is opening her home for the regular meeting of the Senior group of the Highland Park-Ravinia Center of the Infant Welfare Society next Monday.

Assisting Mrs. Date as hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Robert M. Cobb, Mrs. C. Longford Felske, Mrs. Horace F. Penney and Mrs. David T. Sanders. Mrs. Jackson W. Smart, president of the group, has called the Board meeting for 10 o'clock, preceding the regular meeting.

This will be the last meeting of the Senior group until September. Mrs. O. P. Decker, sewing chairman, has planned a full day of hand sewing by the members. This will complete the quota of dresses and other garments made for the Infant Welfare Stations.
