TWO MEN

Today,
Ten Thousand miles from surety
A young, bewildered soldier died alone—
Crying for the rivers, the fields,
The hands that he had known.

Today,
In nearby bureaucratic ease—
From a fat cigar a man shook ashy flakes,
Sat back and calmly tossed into a basket
Yesterday's mistakes.

Poet Carl Selph wrote that.

I've never met him, but in 48 words he has poignantly painted these bewildering hours of our times.

That poem should be kept constantly in front of Washington "leaders". . . .

Sailor Jack Beck Home On Leave

As they'd say in the Navy, a vacation in Key West, Fla., is a "good deal."

Jack H. Beck of Highland Park won't be lolling on the beaches all of the time, but the 19-year-old sailor will have a chance to do his share of swimming while attending Sonar School there.

Beck, a seaman apprentice, USN, is scheduled to begin his course after a two-week leave at home which began Monday.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Beck of 836 Laurel ave., Jack recently completed recruit training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. He has been a member of the Bluejacket Choir and a back stroke star on the swimming team at Great Lakes.

Jack graduated from Highland Park High school in 1949, and attended the Navy Pier branch of the University of Illinois for one year before joining the Navy. He won varsity letters in swimming in both high school and college competition.

His preference if he goes to sea?

Jack says he'd like a "big ship. A battle ship or a cruiser, maybe."

Karl Thomas, age 15, 3849 North Odell Street, Chicago, tells Governor Adlai Stevenson how firecrackers blinded his right eye last year at this time. He was in the hospital for thirty-one days while doctors tried in vain to save the sight of the injured eye. Dorsey Connors, star of television accepts for the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Governor Stevenson's proclamation that the week of June 27th through July 4th be known as "Prevention of Blindness Week." Governor Stevenson called upon all Illinois citizens to obey the Illinois anti-fireworks law to save sight and even life.

EXPERT RIFLEMAN

Charles Frederic Elbert, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elbert of 753 County Line rd., has won the Expert Rifleman Medal, it was announced recently by the National Rifle Association.

Young Elbert first took up the target sport about three years ago.

He has climbed steadily through the 13 lower rankings, and with one more step he will reach the top in junior shooting, the Distinguished Rifleman rating.

He is a junior at the Highland Park High school, where he is a member of the Junior Rifle club. Mrs. C. J. Winkley is the club instructor.
