Notes At Random . . .

Scouts report the music at Ravinia is better this year than ever before.

We're mighty lucky to have this haven for beautiful music at our doorstep.

A sincere thanks to all those generous folks who have given so much to please so many.

And a special thanks to popular Howell Murray for all the fine work he has done. . . .

Bits From Here And There . . .

Over 6,500 persons have enrolled at Northwestern for its summer session. That's an increase of 600 over last year. And that's a good sign: Folks are eager to learn; and that's progress. . . .

Evanston's alert W.C.T.U. wonders why the United States made over 576,000 gallons of vodka last year. We do, too. . . .

Green Bay Road continues to be our local speedway. Two cars whizzed past me so fast one day this week that our 1951 car seemed like it was standing still. Both cars, incidentally, were old timers, and were cruising around 60 when they zoomed by. . . .

The creator of Buck Rogers lives in Glencoe. . . .

Officer John Nizzi, who has ably served Highland Park's police force well for 20 years, retires next month. Well done, John! You made a fine record! . . .

Congratulations to Fred Gienger who won top honors in our local rose show. . . . Glad to see Curtis C. Eiker is the new assistant principal at Lake Forest High School. . . .

Which Kind Are You? . . .

A column reader showed me this fine poem the other day and we think it's worth noting:

TWO KINDS

There are only two kinds of people
Composing all mankind's alloy:
Those who can see only sorrow,
And those who can always find joy.

For some will step on a blossom
And assert that it hurts their toes,
While others get thorns in their fingers
And still stop to worship the rose.
