Globe-Traveled Colonel Home On Leave, Then Off To Japan

Lt. Col. John P. O'Connor, of the United States Air Force, a member of the armed forces since 1931, is spending a leave at 471 Roger Williams avenue, the home of his mother, Mrs. Francis J. O'Connor and his sister, Elizabeth. On July 20 he will again leave to report to Haneda air base, Tokyo, as director of traffic for the air transport wing of the Military Air Transport Service. He expects to be posted there for a three year period.

A much traveled service man, Col. O'Connor is a graduate of Deerfield Shields high school, class of 1927. He was graduated from University of Wisconsin, and was called from the army reserve to active duty in 1941, reporting to coast artillery service.

A captain in World War II, he was posted in New Guinea. Returning to the States in 1943 he was assigned to the air corps. Since then he has been stationed in England, China, Central America and North Africa, not omitting Germany, where he spent nearly a year with the Berlin airlift.

Recently stationed in the States, he has just been graduated from the Air War college at Maxwell air force base, Ala., the highest air force school.

Music Club Awards $250 Scholarship To Sandra Schwartz

As the result of try-outs last week at the Highland Park Recreation center, a scholarship of $250 was awarded by the Highland Park Music club to Miss Sandra Schwartz, 558 Detamble avenue. Miss Schwartz, a pianist, is 17, and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Schwartz.

A graduate of the June graduation class of Highland Park High, Miss Schwartz plans to major in music at the University of Illinois.

Judging the ten contestants, who included vocalists, pianists and theory students, were Dr. Oswald Jonas of Roosevelt college, Miss Priscilla Carver, pianist, of Highland Park and Mrs. Margaret Farr Wilson, pianist, of Lake Forest.

Former Highland Park Youth Enters U. S. Naval Academy

Harold W. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nelson, formerly of Highland Park but now residents of Morton Grove, was sworn in recently at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He was appointed an alternate in March by Representative Margaret Stitt Church. A sophomore at Iowa State, he had received a scholarship for his freshman year from the Highland Park High school PTA. He is 19.

Gene Nelson, a younger brother will attend University of Illinois next year.

Beach Picnic Days Are Here Again

Time to eat, and yellow margarine bows into Illinois just in time to perk up those traditional beach picnic sandwiches. With margarine's superior spreadability you can take it along and spread your sandwiches when you're ready for them, thus eliminating the soggy bread which used to be a picnic trademark. Notice how Good Luck, the table margarine, stays firm and solid despite exposure to the sun.

Junior Women's Prosperity Club To Fete New Members

The third Annual Membership tea of the Junior Italian Women's Prosperity club will be marked by the initiation of twenty new members. The event will take place at the Highwood Community center on Sunday, July 15 from 3 to 5.

At a candle light ceremony the vice president and general chairman of the club, Mrs. John Lawler, will introduce the new members. Mrs. Adolph Rosalini, president, will present their badges.

Members and pledges of the club are all invited to be guests, according to Mrs. Victor Santi, membership chairman. Arrangements for the tea are in charge of Mrs. Dominick Valentini, hospitality chairman. Tea will be served by members of the Senior Italian Women's Prosperity club. Mesdames Albert Ferrari, Della Brasa, Louis Bernardi, Dessi Mattei, Elio Grandi and Steve Cassai will serve as assistant hostesses, and tea will be poured by Miss Mary Ori and Mrs. Eldo Bioni.

Scout Attendance Breaks Record Of Decade

With more than 225 Scouts in camp for second period at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan a ten year attendance record has been broken. Scout Executive E. A. Schwechel, of the North Shore Area Council, acting as camp director this summer reports quality as well as quantity camping.

Highlights of the program include a camp fishing contest with over 2,500 fish recorded as caught by the campers, the swimming and boating meet won by Mohawk Village, overnight hikes, swamp hike, campfires, dry land carnival and the Order of the Arrow calling-out ceremony. Campers were busy with Scout advancement in camp with 15 qualifying for second class rank, 9 for first class and 149 merit badges were earned.

Visitors day for each camp period is scheduled for the second Sunday. Parents and Scouters and their families are invited to visit camp on July 15, 29 and August 12.

The annual Executive Board visit to camp will take place on July 14-15.

A limited number of reservations will be accepted for the 3rd and 4th periods at the Council Office in Highland Park. There are also several openings in the Canadian Canoe trip starting on August 11.

Model Plane Meet Postponed Till 21st

The torrential downpour and high winds of Sunday, July 8, forced the postponement to Saturday, July 21, of the fifth annual Plymouth Chicago Model Airplane contest.

Through arrangements made by Captain Richard M. Oliver, commanding officer of the U. S. Naval Air Station at Glenview, more than 500 air-minded competitors from Chicago, its suburbs and nearby communities, were invited back to the air station on July 21. The air demonstrations by the Navy Phantom Jets, midget races and other events scheduled will also be held on the 21.

Weather permitting, a crowd of 75,000 to 100,000 persons is expected.

Dramatic Art, Singing For Children At Winnetka Com'ty House

Classes in singing and dramatic art are being given every Tuesday at the Winnetka Community House. These classes are for children 6 years old and up. There are also classes for adults. All instruction is given by Mrs. Jessie Waters Northrop, director of the drama department at the Chicago Musical College.

Mrs. Northrop is a member of the National association of Teachers of Singing and specializes in the teaching of correct pronunciation, poise and grace. These classes are open to residents of Highland Park and Highwood. Registration may be made by phoning the Winnetka Community House or applying personally on Tuesday.

Heinrichs Represents City In Junior Red Cross Center

Hard at work at the Junior Red Cross Training Center being held at Lake Forest Academy, July 11 through 19, are 54 delegates who were selected to represent their Chicago and Suburban High schools. They are acquiring knowledge, experience, and practice in leadership which will mean a great deal to them as individuals, to their schools, and to the Red Cross.

Classroom activities, workshop, and special projects are giving the student leaders experience in conducting the Junior Red Cross programs. Junior Red Cross Chapter staff members are serving as advisors for committees, counselors in the dormitories, and are implementing the student-led program. There also are guest speakers.

Every effort is being made to help the young people learn about good community service through the example set and the work
