Highlighting . . .

Want to see some fine baseball right here in Highland Park?

If so, we certainly recommend the Moose's 2nd annual benefit games to be played Sunday, July 29, at Highland Park High's athletic field.

Games start at 1:30 P.M.

You'll see the Moose Governors tangle with Somenzi & Sons; the Old Timers vs. Ft. Sheridan; and Moose Girls vs. Ft. Sheridan Wacs.

Strawhat Theater Notes . . .

Music Theater stars are celebrating the first month of their second season this week with "No, No, Nanette."

You'll be humming "Tea For Two" and "I Want to be Happy" after seeing this gay musical.

Been out to Shady Lane Farm in Marengo, Ill., lately?

Their fried chicken is better than ever. And the plays are outstanding.

"Barney" Hughes, the best actor around, has the lead in "Payment Deferred" at the Tenthouse this week.

Brief Editorials . . .

Overheard: "Aw, you're just an old North Korean!" shouted the North Shore youngster whose friend had just stolen his candy.

What ever happened to: Jo Stafford? Tommy Dorsey? And Benny Goodman's big band?

There's still a lot of speeding on Green Bay Road. And tourists are zooming thru our city streets entirely too fast!

Theory: Men are dying young. Reason? They're trying to crowd in a week's work (lawn cutting, golf, car-washing, dinner-dance date with their wives, etc.) into a week-end.

Can't be done.

Can't be done.

Ye olde heart wasn't made to go at such a top speed—particularly after working so hard all week at the office.

Think that over. . . .

A note of commendation to the courteous folks at Sears who certainly gave this writer excellent service on a power mower purchase the other weekend. . . .

T-V Jottings: Glad to see "Pete" Hayes and bride will be back . . . Ernie Simon's program, Curbstone Cut-Up, needs cleaning up . . . We'd welcome more fine music and less crime on TV . . . How does Clifton Utley remember the news so well? . . .

Parting Thought . . .

There is no exercise better for the heart than reaching down and lifting people up.
