ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Baird of 1864 Linden avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to Robert M. Richey, II, son of the senior Richeys of Durham, N. C., on Thursday, August 9.

Mr. Richey and his bride are now on a wedding trip to Denver, Colorado. They plan to go on to California before leaving for Durham, where Mr. Richey will enter his senior year at Duke university. His bride is a graduate of Highland Park high school and completed her first year at Duke in June. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

RETURN FROM EUROPE

After a three months' trip, which took them to Austria, Belgium, Germany, Holland and Italy, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Humer and daughter, Katherine, of McDaniels avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John Humer of Oak street and Miss Mabel Trenton of Chicago, arrived home on Saturday. The trip over was aboard the Veendam and the return trip was on the New Amsterdam. In Austria they visited relatives of the Messrs. Humer.

Another daughter, Mrs. William Russell, and her daughter, Lynn, of Essex, Maryland are here now for a week's visit with her parents. The Russells had been vacationing in northern Wisconsin for the past two weeks. Mr. Russell returned to Maryland on Sunday.

GREET NEW GRANDSON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Grimes of 1176 S. Lincoln avenue returned home on Friday from a six weeks' trip to the west coast. In San Francisco, they visited at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Jordan, Jr. (Frances Grimes) and had their first glimpse of their new grandson, Lawrence, III, two months old. They also visited their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wesley (Carol Grimes) in San Diego, where Mr. Wesley, a member of the marine corps, is stationed.

Enroute, Mrs. Grimes, who went by train, visited with her brother, Brower Hall, in Claremont, Calif. Mr. Grimes arrived on the west coast by plane.

The Grimes' son, George, is now employed in Denver Colo. He was graduated from Amherst in June.

SONJA GOTAA'S MARRIES

The Zion Lutheran church in Highwood was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sonja Marie Gotaas and Kenneth E. Peterson on Saturday, August 11, at 4 p.m. The Rev. Herbert Linden heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Gotaas of 681 Washington place and Mr. Peterson is the son of the Carl Petersons of Des Moines, Ia.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered organdy gown, ballerina length. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara headdress. The bouquet she carried was of white roses, carnations, larkspur and other small white flowers.

Miss Joan Siefken of East Moline, Ill., attended as maid of honor. Her blue organdy frock was complemented by the yellow roses, Fuji mums and Pom Poms, which she carried, and by the yellow flowers on her velvet ribbon headband.

Herbert Peterson served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother chose an orchid taffeta dress for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in navy blue. Each wore a corsage of Rubrum lilies.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

After a northern wedding trip Mr. Peterson and his bride will live in Rock Island, Ill., where he is attending Augustana Theological seminary. Both he and his bride are graduates of Augustana college.

BACK HOME

Miss May Siljestrom of 1606 Oakwood avenue recently returned from a three weeks' trip to the west coast. In Dillard, Ore., she was the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, the Charles McCords (Margaret Siljestrom) and their family and in San Francisco, Calif., she visited with her niece and her family, the John Bromleys.

Both trips were made by plane and Miss Siljestrom reports that though she was aboard five different planes, Hugh Riddle's Midway Airlines, which operates from Sky Harbor to Midway airport, Chicago, was outstanding, to her, for its convenience and quick service.

Herb Holt of 904 Judson avenue returned home on Sunday after spending two and one half weeks in Decatur, Ill.

MARRIED AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

The marriage of Mrs. Maxwell H. Field of Lincolnwood avenue and Alfred Flesham of Winnetka was solemnized at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, the Bernard Buchholz' of 300 Lincolnwood road on Saturday, August 11, at 8:30 p.m. Dr. Richard Hertz of Chicago read the service. Only immediate members of the families attended the ceremony, and reception, which followed immediately after, at the Buchholz home. The bride also has a son, John Field of Chicago.

The couple will reside in The Terraces, Ravinia.

VISITING HERE

Miss Cathy Stair, daughter of the H. Bowen Stairs of Short Hills, N. J., formerly of Ravinia, arrived by plane from her home in the east for a week's visit with friends here. She is staying at the James M. Murphey home at 848 Baldwin avenue as the guest of their daughter, Toni. She also plans to spend some time at the home of the A. W. Geigerichs of 616 Pleasant avenue as the guest of their daughter, Sally. She will leave on Monday for a vacation with her grandparents in Door County, Wis.

RETURNS TO FLORIDA

Mrs. J. Mills Easton, formerly of Judson avenue and now of Winter Park, Fla., returned home on Monday after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Rietz of 261 Woodland ave.

MARY QUINN, A BRIDE

Miss Mary Lois Quinn became the bride of Corporal Donald L. Hamlin on Saturday, August 11, in St. James church, Highwood. The bride is the daughter of the late George Quinns of Highwood and the bridegroom is the son of the Ralph Hamlins of Topeka, Kans. The 12 noon ceremony was read by the Rev. James D. Gleeson.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Quinn, wore a yellow sharkskin suit. Her flowers were white roses.

Mrs. Frank J. Garrity of 330 North ave., matron of honor, wore a tan sharkskin suit and her corsage was of pink roses.

George Quinn of Farnsworth, another brother of the bride, served as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Frank Garrity home.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip to Kansas, Corp. Hamlin and his bride will live in Highland Park. Corporal Hamlin is stationed at Fort Sheridan.

WISCONSIN VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutton Laing and daughter, Holly, of 936 Harvard drive returned home this week from a vacation at Elkhart Lake, Wis. Mrs. Laing and Holly were gone about ten days and Mr. Laing joined his family there this past week-end.

FALL WEDDING PLANNED

A fall wedding is planned for Miss Joan Eleanor Weiss of Pottsville, Pa., and Joseph M. Michaels of Philadelphia and Highland Park, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Michaels. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Boston university and Mr. Michaels received his degree from the University of Michigan.

The Michaels Memorial award of the Ravinia Music association was founded in memory of Mr. Michaels' late parents.

MARY DALLA VALLE WEDS

On Saturday, August 11, Miss Mary Louise Dalla Valle and Gene Belmont were united in marriage at St. James church, Highwood at 10:30 a.m. The bride is the daughter of Anthony Dalla Valle of Highland Park and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Julia Belmont of Highwood. The Rev. James Gleeson heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride's gown was of white organdy and the prayer book she carried was marked with white gladioli and satin ribbons. Her father gave her in marriage.

Maid of honor was Miss Gina Salbego and bridesmaid was Miss Nancy Dalla Valle, sister of the bride. Miss Salbego's frock was of aqua and her bouquet was of orchid colored gladioli, while Miss Dalla Valle's dress was of orchid and her flowers, yellow gladioli.

Donald Belmont served his brother as best man and the ushers were Robert Pizzato and Leonard Williams.

The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue and white for the church ceremony. Her corsage was of pink carnations. For the reception, which was held at her (Continued on page 5)
