DONALD ROSSI TAKES A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Donna Deanne Manzke and Donald Rossi was solemnized on Saturday, August 11, at 11 a.m. at the Church of St. Mary, Lake Forest. The Rev. Arthur Douaire of St. James church, Highwood, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the Charles B. Manzkes of Lake Bluff and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eietta Rossi of 12 Walker ave.

The bride's gown was of chantilly lace made with a V neckline, portrait collar, button trim down the back and a very long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The bouquet she carried was of white roses.

Miss Elaine Saaris of Park Ridge, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Peter Rossi, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul Eagon of Zion; Miss Esther Orsini of Highwood and Mrs. Charles Rahning of Lake Bluff. The attendants were all gowned in white marquisette and their Dutch caps were of white lace. The maid of honor's dress was made with an apron effect of lace and the bridesmaids' frocks were trimmed with lace. They all carried red carnations.

Little Barbara Huebner, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was a miniature of the maid of honor in her white organza dress and Dutch cap. The basket she carried was filled with white rose petals.

Raymond Rossi, nephew of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer. Dressed like the men attendants in a white coat and navy trousers, he carried the ring on a lace pillow.

Best man was Anthony Bitetti and the ushers were Peter Rossi, Paul Eagan, Michael Capozzi and Charles Rahning.

The bride's mother chose a teal blue crepe dress, made with a lace bodice, for the occasion. Her accessories were cocoa brown. The bridegroom's mother was in black. Each wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception was held at the Moose home on Green Bay road, Highland Park, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Rossi and his bride left on Monday for a motor trip to Denver, Colo., and through the west. They will be gone two weeks. On their return they will live on McGovern street in Highland Park.
