ANNOUNCE BETHROTHAL AND WEDDING PLANS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newman of 953 Wildwood lane announce the betrothal and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Nancy Trude, to Joseph Michael Patten, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Patten of Dorchester, Boston, Mass.

The bride-to-be attended the Highland Park High school for two years and was graduated from Roycemore. She attended the University of Arizona for one year, completing her freshman year in June. Her fiance, was a student at Arizona for the past two years. He is affiliated with Phi Psi fraternity.

Miss Newman has asked Miss Donna Reid of 630 Melody lane, to attend as maid of honor and Mrs. James Brokaw of Boston, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be; Miss Charlene Northup of Beverly Hills, Illinois, a classmate at Arizona; Miss Joan Winton of 59 Pierce road and Miss Janis Zabel of 762 Broadview avenue, to be bridesmaids.

Henry Patten of Boston, cousin of the bridegroom-elect, will serve as best man. The usher list is not yet complete.

Miss Newman and her mother recently returned from Boston where they were the guests of Mr. Patten's family and relatives.

To-morrow night Miss Reid and Miss Zabel will be co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in Miss Newman's honor. About twenty will attend the party, which will be given at the home of Miss Reid's parents, the Harry M. Yeagers of Melody lane.

SLUMBER PARTY

Following the bridal shower at the Yeager home to-morrow evening the girls will be guests of Miss Annabeth Sears of 196 Central avenue at a slumber party.

OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson W. Smart, their son, Jackson, Jr., and daughter, Miss Dorothy (Dee Dee) will be at home, 55 Sycamore place, to several hundred friends on Sunday. Young friends of Mr. Smart, Jr. and his sister have been invited to stay on for supper.

Miss Smart completed her freshman year at Smith in June and her brother, who will enter his final year at the University of Michigan this fall, was elected president of the Interfraternity Council. He is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity. He was also tapped before the conclusion of school last year, for Michigama, the top honor society of the school, which chooses only twenty students out of the entire enrollment of 20,000.

RETURN EAST TO-DAY

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Sanders, III (Peggy Jones) and daughter, Leslie, who celebrated her third birthday at a party on Saturday, are leaving to-day for their home in Alpine, N. J. The Sanders', who have been dividing their time with Mrs. Sanders' mother, Mrs. Jess R. Jones of 730 Judson ave., and Mr. Sanders' mother, who resides at 280 Linden Park place, formerly lived in Highland Park. They have been here for the past two weeks.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

The engagement of their daughter, Constance Janet, to Roy Dickenson Welch, son of Mrs. R. D. Welch of Princeton, N. J. and the late Mr. Welch, is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Alexander of 1729 Berkeley road. Miss Alexander is a senior at Northwestern university, from which her fiance was graduated. The wedding will take place in December.

HOME SOON

After a month's vacation on the west coast, Miss Nancy Smalley, daughter of the Burton M. Smalleys of 882 Fairview road, will return home the end of next week. Her sister, Mrs. Howard Stafford (Janet Smalley), whom she has been visiting in San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Stafford's six month old son, Robert, will return with her.

Mrs. Stafford and the baby will be the guests of her parents for the month of September.

GERALD SHEAHEN TAKES A BRIDE

The marriage of Miss Loraine Ann Mensching and Gerald Howard Sheahen took place in the Faith Lutheran church in Arlington Heights on Saturday, August 18, at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mensching of Arlington Heights and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Howard Sheahen of 909 Central avenue and the late Mr. Sheahen.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace, which ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a lace cap headdress. The bouquet she carried was of white roses.

Mrs. Stanley Mensching of Arlington Heights, sister-in-law of the bride, attended as matron of honor. The frock she wore was of lavender and her flowers were white and pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Sheahen, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Geraldine Moehling and Miss Audrey Schumann, both of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Dale Tate of Aurora. Two of the bridesmaids wore lavender and two, pale green. Their bouquets were also of white and pink roses.

Pamela Griese and Mary Lou Heidemann, each eight years old, attended as junior bridesmaids. Their dresses were yellow and their bouquets, white roses.

Don Heinrichs of Highland Park served Mr. Sheahen as best man and the ushers were Stanley Mensching, brother of the bride; Dale Wilke of Lake Geneva, her cousin; Larry Larson of Highland Park and Eugene Peterson of Highwood.

The bride's mother chose a grey crepe dress for the occasion, complemented by a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was in light blue and her corsage was like that of the bride's mother, as was the corsage of the bride's paternal grandmother. The grandmother's dress was black.

A reception in a Buffalo Grove hall followed the ceremony.

The bride attended Carthage college and Mr. Sheahen will enter the second half of his junior year at Lake Forest college in the fall.

Mr. Sheahen and his bride are now in Minocqua, Wisconsin on their honeymoon.

TO CELEBRATE 97TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Frank Butler, who has made Highland Park her home for the past five and one half years, will celebrate her 97th birthday on August 30. Formerly of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Butler is the mother of Mrs. Albert P. Snite of 201 Central avenue.

WEEK-END VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Strieby (Juni Cabonargis) of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. James M.

Hape (Diana) of Cincinnati, O., were the week-end guests of their parents, the Joseph Cabonargis of 455 Cedar avenue.

EVELYN ROSKE, A BRIDE

Platzer heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Christian Roskes and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Doherty of Paisly, Scotland.

Gowned in white lace, ballerina length, and wearing a shoulder length veil which fell from a white taffeta and net headdress, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her bouquet was of white roses.

The bride's attendant, Miss Dorothy Pearce of Second street, was dressed in light blue, also ballerina length, and carried pink roses.

Gerald Budge of Cloverdale avenue served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Andrew Murray of Deerfield pl., wore a grey suit and her corsage, also, was of gardenias.

After a week's wedding trip to the Dells, Wis., Mr. Cumming and his bride will live at 2506 Green Bay road, Highland Park.

About forty attended the wedding ceremony and about one hundred and fifty other guests arrived at 8 p.m. for the reception.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's sister, Miss Catherine Cumming of North Chicago, with whom he had been living; Mr. and Mrs. Tivo Haanpaa and son, Denny, of Montreal, Wis., uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clement and son, Ronnie, of Saxon, Wis., also uncle and aunt of the bride; Mrs. Steve Lupie of Plano, Ill., and Miss Florence Stanchui of Lake Zurich, also her aunts; Mrs. Victor Lupie of Glenwood, Calif., cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Payette of Waukegan and Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Payette of Milwaukee, also cousins of the bride, and relatives and friends from Evans-ton and Chicago.

The bride's brother, Christian John Roske, U. S. Navy, was unable to attend the wedding as he was transferred two days earlier from Great Lakes to North Fork, W. Va.
