Telephone Employees Earn Attendance Awards

Three telephone workers were recently cited for their attendance record by F. E. French, district traffic superintendent for Illinois Bell at ceremonies in the Highland Park operating room. As a useful token of the company's appreciation, special perfect attendance pencils were awarded.

The mechanical pencil, inscribed with the winner's name, has a transparent plastic barrel containing one or more small colored balls, the color and number of the balls signifying the number of years of perfect attendance. Miss Marion Larson's (supervisor) two years is symbolized by two blue balls, Miss Ada Grotti's (supervisor) by a single blue ball, and Mrs. Louise Altman (operator) by one blue ball.

Miss Larson was employed by the company in October, 1942; Miss Grotti in January, 1943; and Mrs. Altman has 26 years of service with the company, according to a recent report.

July Marks Peak In Success Of Thrift Shop

At the last monthly meeting of the Highland Park Thrift Shop board held in the home of the president, Mrs. John Kies, it was announced that July was the most successful month in the history of the shop.

Due to its large income, the board was able to make donations to the Red Cross flood relief fund; Arden Shore camp and the Woman's auxiliary of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, in addition to the regular allocation of funds to the three supporting organizations, Infant Welfare center, Northwestern settlement and the Woman's auxiliary of Highland Park hospital.

Highland Parkers Home From Europe Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Humer, 1465 McDaniels, recently returned from a three-months trip in Europe, are the hosts of their daughter, Mrs. William Russel and grand-daughter Lynn, of Essex, Maryland. Mr. Russel returned to Maryland after their vacation in northern Wisconsin.

During their three-months' trip through Europe the Humers visited Austria, Belgium, Holland and Italy. Included in their party were the John Humers of Oak street and Miss Mabel Trenton of Chicago. Their trip over was made aboard the Veendam.

In Austria the Humers visited with relatives. While in Belgium a sad mission was accomplished.

The brother of Miss Trenton was killed in World War II. Not until two years after the war was his body found, when it was interred in a grove, and the grave marked by kindly Belgium people. The Humer party was treated with great consideration, and taken to the grave, which was easily found. The party expresses great appreciation of the kindly treatment received.
