Country Good Times

Continued from page 1

the Monmouth Curling Club float in the Wilberforce Country Good Times parade.

Club; Homeniuk Am- and Craft usements; the Heritage Guild; St. Margaret's Church; Agnew's Ge Store; The General Store; The Loop Troupe; Cedar Lake Cottagers; Fred's Septic Pumping; probably and others.

There wewre fire fighting vehicles from both Monmouth and Cardiff Townships.

There were many antique cars from Bancroft and other places.

There wer indi-viduals and families dressed up and marching in the parade.

All these marched the length of Wilberforce, finishing in the school yard.

FLEA MARKET The Flea Ma

PLACE YOUR

ADVERTISEMENT HERE

And reach a market stretching from

Palmer Rapids to Haliburton

Gilmour to Maynooth

With concentration in:

Wilberforce, Tory Hill, Harcourt,

Highland Grove, Cardiff,

Paudash, Bancroft

Display Ads $6.50 / column inch

Classified Ads: $6 for first inch

"Mark Your Calendar" $3.00

Cardiff Courier &

Bancroft Courier

P.O. Box 99, Cardiff, Ont.

KOL IMO

Our Sales Staff are ready to help you

Sheila Baverstock . . 613-474-2243

Clara Burt 705-448-3359

Show continued in the Lloyd Watson Centre all week-end: from 6 p.m. on p.m. on Friday to 6 p.m. on Sunday. There were other booths in the parking lot, and on the Fair Grounds. And still others filling the Curling Rink. The Fire Hall was open; and the Fire Department did a brisk business in hamburgers and pop - especially dur-ing the heat of the day.

MIDWAY A large Midway was brought by Homeniuk Amuse-ments. "The whole ments. "The whole show is out of Paris (Ontario)," explained Trucker looking after the Carousel.

There were rides for all ages, at the Country Good

TALENT SHOW

The Talent Show was held in the Arena on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. It attracted large crowds, and 21 contestants.

Youth winners were Leila, Jes-sica, and Paige Bolahood, all from Oshawa, but summer residents of Har-

We would be de-lighted to publish adult talent winners contest next issue.
At other times,

professional musician Rick Jones, and the Silver-thorns, provided music in the Ar-

Storm Lashes Our Area

Continued from page

freight Even more the air pressure lifted off his body.

He and the Rud-dells had time to say, "Get the kids say, "Get the kid to the basement. But they did not have time to act on the plan.
"It was so fast

and so powerful, Ruddell re-Jim calls.

"We heard it, and were heading for the basement, adds Cindy.

And already it was all over.

Many of the beau-tiful red pines which graced the property were now twisted and broken, or uprooted. Some had fallen on top of the cot-

Others had been blown over on top of the neighbour's cottage, which was covered with large trees.

The dog had been put - for safety -in the garage. Broken trees were piled so high in front of and on top of the garage that they had difficulty getting to the building. When they did, they found the dog terthey rified, but harmed.

They happened to notice the exact time of the storm: 3:03 a.m.

door live Next

Tom and Mary Hull, of Hamilton. They were asleep at one end of their cot-tage. "We woke up and there it was.

"I thought, 'I'm dreaming this thing'," Mary re-acted. But it was no dream.

Fourteen trees on their property were blown down. property These were tall, stately red pines which Mary had helped plant, some 70 years ago, when she was a young girl.

A number of the trees had crashed within a few feet of their bedroom.

The family's boat had been driven up next to the deck of the cottage, and was twisted. tree was lying in-ches from the sup-port for the deck.

"People have been so helpful," the Ruddells added. On Saturday morning, people came out from Wilberforce to help cut the trees, and clear a path to the cottage. Agnews brought food and coffee.

All over the area one can see many trees blown down. Ontario Hydro workers are still repairing damage in many areas, as we go to press.

Other places had only a spectacular and lightning thunder show, and strong winds and heavy rain.

As we hear from across the Province and beyond, the storm seems to have made a crescent path: from Goderich, to Bar-rie and Orillia, rie and Orillia, to Wilberforce and Harcourt, to King-ston; and to Watertown, New York the next morning.

Cindy Ruddell pointed to an oak seedling which she was growing on the property. Broken pine trees lay all around it. But the oak had not been damaged. "I had been afraid of getting too much shade," she com-mented. "I guess I won't worry, now.

Pensions and Other Payments

Continued from page 4

60-64 who are married to GIS recipremains $689.26 as does es Allowance paid the maximum Wid-to low income in- owed Spouse's Al-dividuals between lowance paid to 60-64 who are mar- low-income widowed persons, 60-64 at $760.94

Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic

Continued from page 1

Radio for public service announcements, and the ments, and D.P. Detachment for distributing posters to outlying communities.

The staff of 25 Red Cross workers

SCHWANDT

HARCOURT

(705) 448-2268

from Toronto ar-rived by bus fol-lowed by the refrigeration truck and equipment truck. Within a short time the donated space the Legion Hall resembled a field hospital. To quote Joan, "It was po-etry in motion to see this organized efficiency.

LUMBER

GOODERHAM

(705) 447-2012

A total of 212 units of blood was collected at this clinic.

A special Thank goes to 18 ess volun-You 18 tireless from teers the community. Maynard Schutt provided background music for this production, playing the piano for seven continuous hours.

Special commendation goes to the civic minded donors.

BARAGAR FUNERAL HOME WIGGINS CHAPEL

38 Bridge Street West P.O. Box 1668 Bancroft, Ontario K0L 1C0 Tel. 613-332-3990 Fax. 613-332-1984

Fastefully

Welcome Visitors!

Specializing in

Cedar Docks/Decks & Patios

Now in Stock

New Recycled Plastic Lumber

Amazing! Come in and See for Yourself

