

Fraser, Edna E.

Enlisted in March 1915 and went overseas on May 17, 1915. She spent a short time in England and France and went in October to Salonika where she remained two years. She returned to Basingstoke where she remained until coming home in October 1918. She was here when the armistice was signed and so did not return. She is now engaged at the Whitby Military Hospital.

She was born in Galt and educated at the Galt Collegiate Institute and was tained as a nurse in Toronto, Her home is at 53 Bruce St., Galt with her parents.