

were far from desiring to give the Treasury Benches any were anxious to promote which promised to be for the of the country, but they could decide with reference to the any portion of the Provincial they had been made acquainted with the estimated income and expenditure. (Dear).

MCDONALD could not see statement he had made the hon. gentlemen could assume

He had then stated that they of a million dollars which were for the public service—that on next they would have half a and in the interim would have met the requirements of the

They did not need the half asked to invest it to the best What further statement did require? They wanted receipts and expenditure, but very rough estimates could be and he contended it was perfectly a Government working on a saving in the most cautious style and to the expenses of the able within two or three weeks any statement of what would be the necessities of the public whole matter, it appeared to at, was in a nut shell. There funds which they wished to stageously as possible. What gentlemen opposite alarmed at? comprehend it. Still, if honestly desired more light on had no objection to let the