

Mr. McKELLAR also advocated the second reading of the Bill. Affidavits, he was satisfied, could be produced to show that the debentures were in the hands of the very parties purchasing them originally. There never was a clearer case for the Legislature to step in and compel an act of justice.

Mr. GIBBONS supported the second reading.

The Bill was then read a second time, and ordered to be referred to Committee of the Whole on Monday.

ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE CO.

On motion of Mr. LYON, the bill to incorporate the Royal Canadian Insurance Company was read a second time and referred to Committee of the Whole on Monday.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY.

Mr. BEATTY moved for a return showing the annual receipts and expenditure of Toronto University, and University College, since the year 1860; also showing the sources of income, names and salaries of professors, officers and employees of said institution, and the amount expended annually in scholarships and prizes. Carried.

UPPER CANADA COLLEGE.

Mr. CHRISTIE moved for a return, in abstract, showing the income and expenditure of Upper Canada College for the years 1862 to 1866 inclusive; also, the yearly attendance of pupils. Second, a detailed statement for the year ending December 31st, 1867, of the income and expenditure, the attendance of pupils, the number of teachers employed and their salaries, together with a statement of the amount, if any, advanced to the Upper Canada College out of the Toronto University funds for the several years from 1861 to 1867 inclusive. Carried.

EXPIRING LAWS.

Hon. J. S. McDONALD introduced a bill to continue for a limited time certain Acts therein mentioned.

Second reading on Monday.

The House adjourned at 6 o'clock until Monday.
