

measures until to-morrow, and moved the adjournment of the House.

THE ESTIMATES.

Mr. CAMERON asked when the Estimates would be laid before the House.

Hon. Mr. CROOKS said they were in the hands of the printer, and he expected to be able to lay them before the House on Monday.

Mr. CAMERON asked when the important measures which had been spoken of—the Franchise Bill and the Ballot Bill—would be distributed.

Hon. Mr. MOWAT said he hoped they would be distributed to-morrow, at any rate on Monday.

The House adjourned at six o'clock.
