Mr. HARDY—Since the repeal of the Temperance Act in Grey application has been made by the Board of Commissioners for licenses to be issued. DURATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Mr. SCOTT proposed to discuss the question of the duration of the Legislature, which he thought properly came up as a question of privilege.

Mr. MOWAT desired the hon. gentleman to postpone the discussion to another day, as he would have something to say on the matter.

Mr. SCOTT said the question was urgent, as if, according to one view, the Legislature expired on the 2nd of February, a Bill would require to be introduced to lengthen it.

It was agreed that the question should be brought up to-morrow.

The house adjourned at 4:15.
