

snow storm, it was impossible to go on with the estimates. He, therefore, moved the adjournment of the House.

The House adjourned at 5:05.

---

NOTICES OF MOTION.

The Attorney-General—On Wednesday next—Bill to give to mortgages certain powers now commonly inserted in mortgages.

Mr. Lauder—On Wednesday next—Bill to amend the Railway Act of Ontario.

Mr. Morris—On Wednesday next—Bill to amend the Election Act of Ontario.

Mr. Lauder—On Wednesday next—That it be an instruction to the Printing Committee to order printing in sessional papers, and for distribution to members of this House, the return No. 34 of last session relating to the estate of the late Andrew Mercer.

Mr. White—On Friday next—Order of the House for a statement showing the number and names of the tenants and sub-tenants or lessees of the lands known as the Government farm at Mimico, showing their respective holdings or acres held by each tenant or lessee, and the number of acres thereof remaining unsold, and the respective rentals agreed to be paid by each, the amounts paid, and the terms and conditions of each lease or tenancy; also showing the original cost of the farm, how many acres sold, and the proceeds thereof.

---