The item was then concurred in on the same division.

Upon the item $9,960 for Miscellaneous,

Mr. BRODER took exception to the amount of $4,200, the cost of printing the Ontario Gazette, and moved that while concurring in the appropriation the House express regret that the contractors had been allowed to retain balances in their hands.

Mr. CREIGHTON moved in amendment to this amendment that while concurring in the appropriation the House regretted that owing to a dispute between the contractors and the Government the Printing Committee had been unable to make an audit of the books of the Queen's Printer. He proceeded at some length to discuss the question of the printing contract, claiming that the Government had been extravagant in their management of it.

The amendment to the amendment was lost on the following division:—

YEAS.—Messrs. Baker, Barr, Bell, Boulter, Broder, Calvin, Code, Coutts, Creighton, Deacon, Flesher, Grange, Harkin, Kean, Lauder, McDougall, McGowan, Meredith, Merrick, Monk, Morris, Mostyn, Parkhill, Preston, Richardson, Rosevear, Scott, Tooley, White, Wigle, Wills—31.
