

form lity should be brought forward year after year in this manner. It has been proposed before that this should be one of the standing orders, and I don't know when it has been opposed.

Mr. MOWAT—These motions are merely formal, though as they only take five minutes, at this stage of the proceedings time is not so valuable that we cannot allow it. With regard to standing orders, I would suggest that the non-member get his friends at Ottawa to do the same.

Mr. MEREDITH—I am powerless at Ottawa.

Mr. MOWAT—I may remind him that he is just as powerless here.

The House adjourned at 4:15.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

Mr. Ermatinger—on Tuesday next—Bill to amend the Mechanics' Liens Act.

Mr. Ermatinger—on Tuesday next—Order of the House for a return of all correspondence and papers connected with the escheated bail bonds of one Montgomery, committed for trial by the Police Magistrate of St Thomas, for burglary, and his sureties.
