On motion of Mr. Fraser the time for receiving petitions was extended till the 15th inst. Mr. CREIGHTON moved for a return showing in detail all sums claimed by or allowed to returning-officers in connection with the last election in Algoma. Carried. SCHOOL ASSESSMENTS. Mr. WOOD moved for a return showing the assessed value of property in each school section for 1883, the rate on the dollar, and amount received from the Government. He contended that great inequality was shown in the matter of the Government grant and the assessment for school purposes. WEST MIDDLESEX.

Mr. ROSS was sorry that he could not give the information for school sections, as it was returned to the Department for the townships. If the motion were passed circulars would have to be sent to the inspectors to send in returns just as they receive them, and would take time. The motion was carried. THE ALGOMA ELECTION. Mr. CREIGHTON resumed the debate on the Algema election. He contended in general terms country. Mr. AWREY said the only real trouble with the hon, member and his friends was that they had failed to wrest that constituency from the Reform party. (Hear, hear.) There were only 39 voters on Cockburn Island, instead of 100, as stated by the hon. member for North Grey.

that the Government had done wrong in having too few politing places. He believed the Government were ignorant of the topography of the However, there were 145 American fishermen there who had no votes. The Opposition had offered the deputy returning-officer of the Township of Robinson $200 to allow these men to vote. This was fourteen miles from Cockburn Island. Some 70 of these fishermen voted in Thessalon where the returning-officer did not know them, (Hear, hear.) There were only ballot papers for legitimate voters. They started for Bruce Mines with the other 70. However, they did not arrive there. They could have gone to Barrie Island or Gore Bay, but they did not think it advisable to do so. He referred to the statement made by Big Push Wilkinson that the fiat had gone forth from Ottawa that Mowat must go. At Coburn Island at the Dominion elections 69 ballots cast, while there were only 39 legal voters. The member for East Grey had told the people of Algoma that the Provincial Government was by remarking that he had shown that every voter on Cockubrn Island had had an opportunity of voting. Mr. MEREDITH quoted the Upper Can-report, which stated that whipped; he had assured them upon his honour that the people of Algoma were not receiving enough from the Provincial Government, and that the Opposition, if they got into power, would give them more. He (Mr. Awrey) concluded
