

for that time. He also charged the Educational Department with unnecessary extravagance. He closed by saying that it was not consistent with honest dealing that they should call on the Dominion Government for financial aid, thus causing the Dominion Government to increase taxation, and at the same time use "High Taxation" as a handle against them to secure the votes of the people in election campaign.

Mr. McLAUGHLIN moved the adjournment of the debate.

The House adjourned at 9:45.
