of further increasing the grants to the poor schools and also a change in the work of distributing the legislative school grants so far as it may affect thinly and sparsely settled districts.

Mr. Leys—A bill entitled The Companies Short Form Mortgage Act.

Mr. Allen—A bill entitled an Act to amend an Act respecting snow fences.

The Attorney-General—A bill to provide for the vacancy of certificates of lis pendens.

Mr. Balfour—Bill to amend the Municipal Act.

Mr. Blyth—That there be laid before the House a statement showing in detail the amount of any money paid out by the Crown on behalf of lots 83 and 84 in the 3rd. concession of Southwest Toronto and Sydenham, the said lots being a portion of the Mercer estate, and also showing the amounts received for the sale of the same, together with the correspondence relating thereto.
