

Macdonald, of the Confederation Life; Mr. B. Hal Bown, and Mr. S. Bruce Harman, had a conference last evening at six o'clock with the Attorney-General, Hon. Mr. Hardy and Hon. Mr. Gibson, when the position taken by the Insurance Companies was urged upon the Government for consideration.

NOTES.

6 Hon. A. M. Ross and about thirty members of both sides of the House were driven out to the Central Prison this morning and were shown over the premises by Warden Massie. Several of the hon. gentlemen extended their visit to the Mercer Reformatory. The general opinion in regard to the management of both institutions was that it was very satisfactory.

Mr. Andrew Pattullo was one of those who attended the debate on the Separate School question.
