PRIVATE BILLS COMMITTEE.

The usual wrangle incident to any legislation affecting Port Arthur or that locality took place this morning before the Private Bills Committee. The bill to enable Port Arthur to greatly extend its boundaries and annex a portion of Neebing was amended by reducing the area to be annexed so that Neebing was not included. The bills to make two towns out of East and West Fort William were consolidated so as to incorporate both into one town, leaving out several of the lots in West Fort William. Power was also given to extend the electric railway through East Fort William to West Fort William.

DEPUTATIONS.

A deputation from the Toronto Milkmen's Association waited upon the Government this afternoon to urge that more stringent measures be taken to compel milkmen to keep their premises in sanitary condition. Another deputation from Lindsay asked for a grant to complete some improvements on the Scugog River.
