

Mr. Clancy Approves the Rond-eau Park Project.

Legislative Chamber, March 22.

An early adjournment was effected to-day over Good Friday, but not, as some members had expected, over Easter Monday. Some active work in actual legislation was done, a number of minor Government measures being given a second reading. The estimates were taken up after 5 o'clock, and half an hour's good work put upon them prior to the adjournment at 6 o'clock.

FIRST READINGS.

To amend the municipal act—Mr. Meacham.

To amend the assessment act—Mr. Clark (S. Lanark).

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the second reading of his bill respecting ditches and watercourses, which was passed without debate. He explained that this was the
