

Some Criticisms of Comments of The Globe.

REMARKS BY MR. WHITNEY.

Legislative Chamber, March 26.

The House to-day advanced the legislation in hand perhaps more than on any previous day during the session. A number of bills were read a third time and an unusually large number of second readings were given. Mr. Marter, upon a question of privilege, complained of a paragraph in to-day's Globe which stated that the Opposition had delayed the introduction of the license bill last evening in order that Mr. Marter might consult his friends in regard to the bill.

Mr. Marter, before the orders of the day were taken up, rose to a question of privilege. In The Globe of to-day there appeared the following paragraph :--

"After recess the Opposition kept hammering away at the Agricultural College estimates, and it was passed about that they were killing time so as to delay the taking up of the liquor license bill, the object being to let Mr. Marter have an opportunity of seeing his friends as to the amendments which
