Parliament Buildings, Jan. 4.

The Legislature to-day resumed the labors of the session, and they will now be continued without cessation on every week day until the business is disposed of, unless some unforeseen circumstance arises to interfere with the programme.

Mr. McDonald (Bruce) introduced a bill to amend the agriculture and arts act.

The Premier brought in a bill respecting county jails. It provides that where the prisoners in a jail do not exceed three per day for two years an agreement may be made with an adjoining county for the keep of these prisoners. When a vacancy in the office
