

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24

THROUGH COMMITTEE.

Opposition to Constables Bill Dropped.

TRIFLING AMENDMENTS.

The Bill Stands For Third
Reading To-day.

THE PRINTING CONTRACT.

Mr. Whitney Makes Some Enquiries.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt Denies That Any Investigation is in Progress — Supply
Bill Passed.

Parliament Buildings, Aug. 23.

The first portion of the first session of the ninth Legislature is rapidly drawing to a close. The constables bill passed through committee to-day with practically no opposition, and stands for third reading to-morrow. There are several other bills standing for third