

SATURDAY, APRIL 1,

HOUSE SAT

ALL NIGHT.

Business Wound Up at Seven O'clock Yesterday Morning.

PROROGATION.

A Stormy Sitting and Many Divisions.

ATTACK ON SUBSIDIES.

The Government Given Power to Arrange for the Surrender of the Rankine Monopoly.

Parliament Buildings, March 31.

After a stormy and protracted sitting, lasting from 11 o'clock the previous morning, with intervals for adjournment, until 7 o'clock this morning, the business of the Legislature was brought to a close, and the weary legislators streamed out into the sunlight of a bright spring day to take their trains for home.

A large amount of legislation was crowded into the hours that intervened