Opposition Leader Indulged in Heated Denunciation, and Arraigned the Government Vigorously.

The whole of yesterday's session of the Legislature was occupied with Mr. Whitney's contribution to the debate on the address. The resumption of the House found an almost full attendance of members, while the expected debate brought a gathering of spectators which filled every seat in the galleries with an audience that remained to the end. The leader of the Opposition first treated the various subjects mention-
